Sunday May 22nd, 2016

- 7:35 pm Cleopatra's Lost Tomb - An insight into the pioneering work of criminal lawyer-turned-archaeologist Dr Kathleen Martinez, who has made it her life's mission to locate Cleopatra's final resting place. Very little evidence of her tomb has ever been uncovered, but Kathleen's radical new theory on Cleopatra's identity has led her to search where no one else dared. Her hunch stunned the archaeological establishment as she uncovered a hidden network of tunnels and a vast city of the dead, as well as a 35-metre deep underground hole that bears all the hallmarks of a burial shaft. (From the UK) (Documentary) PG
- 8:30 pm DNA Nation - After having their DNA tested, Ian Thorpe, Ernie Dingo and Julia Zemiro set off on an epic journey of genetic time travel to find out where they, and the rest of humankind, come from. In this episode, they head towards the Serengeti plains in northern Tanzania, 20,000 years to the beginnings of humankind. They meet the Hadzabe people, one of the last remaining hunter-gatherer tribes on earth. Living off the land, they still use ancient methods to survive. (S.1 Ep.1) (Commissioned by SBS) (Produced by Blackfella Films) PG  Documentary Series Premiere
- 9:30 pm Uranium: Twisting The Dragon's Tail - Australian-born physicist Dr Derek Muller unleashes a historian's passion for detail and a physicist's understanding of science to tell the incredible story of the rock that shaped the modern world. From its creation in an exploding star before Earth existed, to its deployment in nuclear weapons, nuclear power and nuclear medicine, this three-part series reveals how, in a single generation, uranium went from something virtually unknown to becoming the most desirable and terrifying rock on Earth. - 9:40 pm What's The Catch With Matthew Evans - Sharks - This provocative new documentary series, led by Matthew Evans, highlights the complex and sometimes shocking truth about Australia's seafood. It also launches a campaign around seafood labelling that will enable all Australians to make better choices when it comes to buying and consuming seafood. Not everyone knows that when we order flake and chips, we are actually eating shark. The problem is no one knows what species it is, so we could be eating an endangered species on a Friday night without knowing it. Matthew decides that until we get better seafood labelling we should swap out flake for other more sustainable alternatives. (Part 2 of 3) (Commissioned by SBS) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG(A,W) CC
