In the second episode he explores modern Istanbul in search of the last desperate centuries of Christian Byzantium, in which the once glorious city was buffeted by enemies from both East and West, and yet still produced a golden artistic renaissance. This is story of the Christian crusaders who destroyed the city, and the Ottoman Muslims who restored it to life as an imperial capital after the epic siege of 1453.(Part 2 of 3) (From the UK) (Documentary) PG CC New Episode

EASTERN STATES (NSW, ACT, QLD, VIC & TAS)

- 8:30 pm Al Capone: Icon - Al Capone, the quintessential self-made American man, ruthless killer, or both? His name sparks images of pin stripe suits and bloody violence. To this day we are fascinated with this celebrity gangster. The question is why? The answer is not as simple. American's love a bad boy; a tragic anti-hero. Al Capone is one of the originals - one of the most notorious gangsters of the twentieth century, believed to have personally murdered dozens of people and ordered the killing of hundreds of others. But that's only one side of this complicated man. He was also a hugely popular public figure, dynamic and charismatic. So what made him a crime boss instead of a powerful politician? (From the US) (Documentary) M (V) CC Premiere

It is the final two months of the diet, and their minds and bodies are fighting back. Dr Chris van Tulleken and Professor Tanya Byron find out if the new personalised diets will help them stay on course, and the experts reveal the scientific secrets to permanent dieting success. (Part 3 of 3) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) G CC Final
- 8:30 pm Is Your Brain Male or Female? - Dr Michael Mosley and Professor Alice Roberts investigate if male and female brains really are wired differently. New research suggests that the connections in men and women's brains follow different patterns - patterns which may explain typical forms of male and female behaviour. But are these patterns innate, or are they shaped by the world around us? Using a team of human lab rats and a troop of Barbary monkeys, Michael and Alice test the science and challenge old stereotypes. They ask whether this new scientific research will benefit both men and women - or whether it could drive the sexes even further apart. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC
- 9:30 pm West Meets East: *Mystical India - Dominic West has just accompanied his great friend, Sir James Mallinson, to India's celebrated Hindu pilgrimage, the Maha Kumbh Mela, to make a groundbreaking documentary film. Attended by an estimated 80 million people during its two-month duration, the Maha Kumbh Mela is a spectacle that draws terrific attention, but this film is the first ever behind-the-scenes journey into the inner sanctums of festival. At Jim's invitation, Dominic spent two weeks living alongside him amongst the holy men or sadhus. This film reveals some of the stranger secrets of these original yogis, and the extraordinary lives they lead. It also investigates Jim's own ordination as a Mahant, the first westerner to be made a commander of his sect. (From the UK) (Documentary) PG CC Premiere

- 7:30 pm Who Do You Think You Are? - *Andrew Denton - In this episode, broadcaster Andrew Denton investigates his family history. A generation ago Andrew's family anglicised their name from Ditkofsky to Denton, a decision taken to keep members safe at a time of entrenched racial intolerance. Andrew's father, author Kit Denton, walked away from his Jewish ancestry when he married a Catholic woman and became a proud atheist. For these reasons Andrew's knowledge of his Jewish roots until now has been scant. On the trail of his ancestors, Andrew's journey takes him to London and Belarus. He is excited by the prospect of meeting descendants of his great grandfather who fathered twelve children. He finds none - instead the horrors of the Holocaust crash down on him. (Commissioned by SBS) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) PG CC
- 8:30 pm Go Back To Where You Came From - The boats may have stopped, but the debate has not. The ground-breaking and multi award-winning SBS series returns after three years to once again provoke national debate about how Australia responds to refugees and asylum seekers. Six ordinary Australians will challenge their strongly held beliefs about refugees and asylum seekers on an immersive, reverse journey in which they will retrace the steps of those seeking asylum to some of the most dangerous places in the world. In the first episode, tempers flare early when the six Australians move in with refugees who were once 'boat people' and nerves are tested as they retrace their hosts' original journeys.
