- 4:30 pm Trawlermen - Faced with ominous weather warnings, Sandy Watt must decide whether to brave violent storms or head for the safety of the harbour. Two much larger boats, the trawlers Starlight and Starlight Rays, hunt as a pair. Their skippers and crews must have complete trust in each other's skill and judgement as the trawlers come within a stone's throw of each other when casting their nets. One wrong move could result in catastrophe. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) G CC
- 5:00 pm Trawlermen - The newest, biggest boat in the fleet, the Chris Andra, sets off on her maiden voyage. But the hunt for a shoal of migrating mackerel is far from plain sailing for skipper Willie Tait and his co-skipper and cousin, Peter. On the trawler Renown, skipper James Buchan is practising a form of fishing that dates back almost 200 years. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) G CC
- 5:30 pm Dive WWII - Maritime historian and explorer Ian Lawler leads a team of deep water divers to the seabed off Northern Ireland. He and the team are searching for the forgotten shipwrecks of World War 2's longest, most epic naval campaign, the Battle of the Atlantic. Presenter Jules Hudson joins Ian and two naval experts as they attempt to piece together the stories of the wrecks from the dive team's underwater footage. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Part 1 of 2) PG CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:35 pm How Climate Made History - What do the rise and fall of the Roman Empire, the Thirty Years' War and the Renaissance have in common? For one, they were all starkly affected by extreme weather conditions. This feature-length documentary combines natural sciences and history, including a journey from the Big Bang to Iceland's volcanoes - to provide a gripping narrative that explores little-known connections between the Earth's climate and major historical events. Are these extremes of weather really a 21st-century phenomenon? Or has climate determined the fate of humanity ever since amphibians took their first steps on terra firma? (From Germany, in English) (Documentary) (class tba) CC Premiere
- 9:30 pm How To Clone A Woolly Mammoth - The Siberian discovery of the best-preserved woolly mammoth on record has teams of experts working around the globe, and around the clock, on some of the most ambitious projects in science. In Russia, palaeontologists are conducting a historic autopsy on the 40,000-year-old beast to find out how it lived, and how it died. Meanwhile, labs in South Korea and at Harvard University are using the latest advances in DNA manipulation in hopes of cloning the furry giant and introducing it to the modern world. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 10:30 pm Prophet's Prey - Like any good religious tale, it boils down to sex, greed, and the preservation of wealth. From critically acclaimed, Emmy Award-winning and Oscar nominated documentary filmmaker Amy Berg (Deliver Us From Evil), Prophet's Prey examines Fundamentalist Church leader Warren Jeffs' life to show how he seized control of people's lives, at the head of an organisation worth hundreds of millions of dollars. (From the US) (Documentary) M(A,L) CC Premiere

Monday February 1st, 2016

- 3:30 pm If Walls Could Talk - *The Bedroom - This episode looks at the bedroom, the room which people now think of as one of the most private in the house and yet started for most as a noisy, busy communal space. From spending the night in a Tudor Farm house to re-creating a bedtime 'bundling' courtship ritual to being publicly dressed as Queen Caroline in Hampton Court to experiencing the glamour of the 1930's boudoir, Lucy Worsley discovers that birth, marriage and death have all played a big part in the story of the bedroom. (Ep.3) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) PG CC
- 4:30 pm Historic Walks - *Philadelphia Founding Fathers - Host Justine Shapiro discovers the charms and history of colonial America by exploring the landmarks of early Philadelphia, meeting people and exploring the places that keep history alive. After soaking up the excitement of 4th of July celebrations, Justine attends a Quaker meeting, experiences a 'taste of the 18th century' ale recipes, before joining a street party on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway to end the day with a fireworks display. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) G
- 5:00 pm Historic Walks - *Hollywood City Of Dreams - Host Justine Shapiro embarks on a walking tour of the historic centre of Old Hollywood where she discovers the eternal allure of the movie capital, and how a small rural town became one of the most famous places on earth. Starting at the top of Mulholland Drive, Justine hikes down the popular Runyon Canyon Park, then makes her way to Hollywood Boulevard and the renowned Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) G

- 6:00 pm Poh's Kitchen - *More Meat With The Butcher Boys - This episode is definitely one for the meat lovers as Poh offers her service as apprentice to butchers, Jason Bradley and Bill Smith. After delving into a bit of dicing, Poh proves she is a dab hand at customer service. In the kitchen, Poh tackles her first roast - a leg of lamb that is marinated with mustard and infused with rosemary and garlic before being beautifully roasted. A braised cabbage dish provides tang to cut through the richness of the meat and Kipfler potatoes baked with butter give an added crunch. (From Australia) (Food Series) G CC New Episode
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:30 pm Oceans Of The Solar System - Water defines the Earth, and is crucial to life. Once we thought oceans were unique to our planet, but astronomers are now discovering them all over the solar system, raising the possibility of life in places we never thought possible. This program sets sail on an epic journey; from the icy wastes of Enceladus to the prehistoric oceans of Mars, and to the methane lakes of Saturn's biggest moon Titan - where NASA plans to send a submarine to dive into the murky depths. Are we on the verge of discovering that - far from being unique - life in the solar system is ubiquitous? (From the UK) (Documentary) G CC Premiere

- 8:30 pm Trawlers: The Catch - Got To Keep Fighting - Every day off the coast of England dozens of deep sea fishing crews are battling rough seas in order to hunt out the most valuable fish. But life at sea is often about so much more than fishing. Deep-sea fishing is the one of the most dangerous jobs in Britain, by some margin, and this series gives us unprecedented insight into the reality of life at sea. This week, the Van Dijk is in trouble - half the crew have abandoned ship and with the boat in disrepair and a storm brewing it doesn't look like it's going to be smooth sailing. (Ep.4) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) MA(L) CC New Episode
- 9:30 pm The Tribe - The Future - Ayke Muko's fun-loving nephew Berkee faces a difficult choice between returning to education or herding cattle to provide for his family. - 7:35 pm Tony Robinson's Wild West - How The West Was Won - This episode focuses on two of Tony's obsessions from his childhood love of Westerns - cowboys and gun slinging outlaws. It also asks the question, who were the real winners of the West? Tony starts by looking at the birth and relatively short life of the cowboy in American culture (they arrive post-Civil War in 1865 and are becoming redundant before the end of the century) and then focus on the lives of the famous outlaws, including Calamity Jane, Jesse James and Wild Bill Hickok. He also tells the story of the civilising of the West and the arrival of thousands of farmers who gradually took over the land and created the mid-Western mindset of modern rural America. - 8:30 pm 24 Hours In Emergency - Chip Off The Old Block - Freddie, seven, is brought in after falling several metres from a tree in his garden. He's been in and out of consciousness and doctors are concerned he could have head or spinal injuries. Martin, 66, collapsed at home and spent the night on the floor, and he's now experiencing poor eyesight and dizziness. The stroke team diagnoses a blood clot, but because of the amount of time that has passed since the incident, clot-busting drugs will have little effect. Elsewhere, eight-year-old Jayden has come to St George's with swollen eyes, the result of severe hay fever. (S.6,Ep.7) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) M(A) CC New Episode

Buried deep beneath the Yorkshire countryside, at the Caphouse Colliery, she finds the catalyst for this spectacular change and discovers how tough life was for Britain's mining pioneers. Julia then examines the way we travelled by celebrating the age of steam at Hampshire's Watercress Line. Later, she sees how the Industrial Revolution changed the way people had fun, first by experiencing the iconic Blackpool Tower and then by attending a football game at Sheffield's Bramell Lane.
