They say that the first two weeks of Royal Marine training are among the toughest of the whole 32 weeks. This first episode follows 56 new recruits through this so-called 'shock of capture'. The recruits spend these opening weeks living in a 60-bed dorm where their every waking hour is controlled by their drill instructor, Corporal 'Froggy' Chauffour. Some question their decision to join up, while others have their career as a Marine cut short when it's barely begun.          | UNITED KINGDOM  | English-100    | 2014 | RPT  | M  | I n Y Y |
