- 9:25 pm Living With The Enemy - Detention Centres - Each week, this confronting new series will see people live 24/7 with others whose lifestyles and beliefs directly contradict their own. Morteza is a 30-year old, former 'boat person' who landed on Xmas Island after fleeing Iran. He spent four uncertain years in detention during which he converted to Christianity, escaped from Woomera Detention Centre, sparked the riot that burned down the Port Hedland Detention Centre and famously sewed his lips together in the Villawood Detention Centre. He is exactly the sort of asylum seeker Jenni from Queensland says should not be allowed to stay in Australia. Living in each other's worlds is an explosive and emotionally draining experience for both of them. However, neither Jenni nor Morteza could have predicted the way the experiment would end. (Commissioned by SBS) (Documentary) (Rpt) M(L) CC

- 3:00 pm Planet Sport - Japan - Manuel views sport as a passport, a humble little prism for understanding the countries he discovers. In Japan, sport is not only the expression of a thousand-year-old culture, but also a sounding board for technological and social developments, an outlet in which people can free themselves from collective norms. Manuel uses humour to get behind the masks of the people he meets. He comes across football-playing robots controlled by impassioned humanoid nerds, apprentice samurai, and also some thrill-seeking 'salary men', manga artists fascinated by values in sport, and finishes his voyage in a school for sumo wrestlers. - 8:50 pm Commando School - The Shock Of Capture - Commando School has unprecedented access to arguably the most arduous basic military training programme in the world, going behind the scenes at the Royal Marines' Commando Training Centre in Devon to document the experiences of Royal Marines in training as never before. They say that the first two weeks of Royal Marine training are among the toughest of the whole 32 weeks. This first episode follows 56 new recruits through this so-called 'shock of capture'. The recruits spend these opening weeks living in a 60-bed dorm where their every waking hour is controlled by their drill instructor, Corporal 'Froggy' Chauffour. Some question their decision to join up, while others have their career as a Marine cut short when it's barely begun. (From the UK) (Factual Entertainment) (Rpt) M(N,L) CC
- 9:45 pm Commando School - Quick Fire - The raw recruits take the next step on their training and there are challenging new lessons at every turn. If they can make it through the next three weeks, their families will get invited down to witness their progress and they'll get to go home for the first time since training began. As the training intensifies, 18-year-old Callum Bond tries to face up to a bewildering array of challenges in an effort to transform himself from boy to soldier. At the other end of the age spectrum, 31-year-old Magnus Frykman struggles to remain on top of training while missing his family, leaving his chance of a weekend at home in the balance. - 1:10 am Movie: The Jewel - The great scandal of Parmalat SpA Italy was Europe's Enron and still holds the dubious record of being the largest European bankruptcy with a debt of 14.3 billion dollars. Director Andrea Molaiudi's film focuses on the human side of this story and the subordination of individual interests to the demands of the family. The founder, Amanzio Rastelli, placed his closest relatives including his son and niece in key positions in the company despite the fact that they had little experience. What followed was gross corporate incompetence, desperate political manoeuvring and fraud that ultimately left 100,000 investors with their money wiped out overnight.
