Together with space archaeologist Sarah Parcak, Dan sets out to identify and then track down lost cities, amphitheatres and forts in an adventure that sees him travel through some of the most spectacular parts of the vast empire. Cutting-edge technology and traditional archaeology help build a better understanding of how Rome held such a large empire together for so long. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC

Sunday March 19th, 2017

- 9:10 pm Building Chernobyl's Mega Tomb - On April 26, 1986, a catastrophic blast blew the lid off Chernobyl's Reactor No.4. The explosion was 400 times more potent than the Hiroshima bomb, igniting fires that burned for 10 days, sending a radioactive cloud across Europe. In the aftermath, ill-equipped workers heroically sealed the smouldering reactor in a concrete sarcophagus, but the hastily constructed shelter was only built to last 30 years. Now, 30 countries including the UK, France and the US have come together to pay for a 1.2 billion Euro international rescue plan to build a mighty 25,000-ton steel shelter which will entomb the radiation and last for a century. This documentary follows the team of international engineers as they race against time to build the structure over the disaster site. (From the US) (Documentary) (Class. tbc) CC Premiere
- 10:15 pm Inside The Cuban Missile Crisis - On October 22, 1962, President John F. Kennedy informed the world that the Soviet Union was building secret missile bases on the island of Cuba, 90 miles off the shores of Florida. The events of the next tension-filled 13 days, known as the Cuban Missile Crisis, struck fear across the globe as the world teetered on the edge of nuclear disaster. The fate of the planet ultimately lay in the hands of three powerful men: Khrushchev, Castro and Kennedy. Cuban Missile Crisis: Three Men Go to War explores the roles the three leaders played during some of the most dangerous moments in history, set against the human stories of ordinary men in the field such as the Soviet man who shot down the U2 piloted by U.S. Air Force Major Rudolf Anderson on the worst day of the crisis. (From Ireland, in English, Russian and Spanish) (Documentary) PG CC
- 11:20 pm MOVIE: Monty Python: The Meaning Of Live - This observational documentary reveals the humour, chaos and passion that went into bringing the Flying Circus to the stage, while offering unique insights into each of the stars. There is Eric Idle pulling the show together with Broadway panache, Terry Jones distracted by his latest feature film, John Cleese's detail-driven perfectionism, Michael Palin rediscovering the joy of improvisation, and Terry Gilliam, restless with the demands of returning to Python. Alongside the rehearsals, the story of Monty Python Live emerges as the journey to The O2 arena also takes place through four decades of Python history. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) MA(L) CC
- 1:10 am The Cradle Of Comedy - A group of young American and Australian stand-up comedians - with Arabic, Iranian and Lebanese heritage - travel to various comedy clubs around the Middle East to perform and experience what it is to be a comedian working between the Western and Middle Eastern worlds. (Commissioned by SBS, in English and Arabic) (Comedy) M (Rpt)
- 2:15 am Cave Of Forgotten Dreams - Iconic director Werner Herzog takes us deep behind the frontier of the extraordinary Chauvet Cave in southern France. This is where the world's oldest cave paintings – hundreds in number - were discovered in 1994. In this mesmerising documentary, he reveals to us a breathtaking subterranean world and leads us to the 32,000-year-old artworks. In that deeply moving moment of encounter, we come face to face with pristine and astonishingly realistic drawings of horses, cattle and lions, which for the briefest second come alive in the torchlight. (From Canada & France, in English & French) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC

- 3:50 am Who Do You Think You Are? - Shaun Micallef - Comedian Shaun Micallef was never told much about his family's past and is worried that his ancestors will all be a bit dull. He begins his journey by investigating his maternal line. It leads Shaun to Turkey and the discovery that his great, great, great grandfather on his mother's side fought in an epic battle and had a brush with one of the most famous women of the 18th century. But what he discovers on his father's Maltese side of the family will amaze him even more. (Commissioned by SBS) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) PG CC

- 7:30 pm The Doctor Who Gave Up Drugs - Last year, doctors in the UK handed over a billion prescriptions, a 50 percent rise in the last 10 years. Dr Chris van Tulleken knows drugs save lives, but he believes Britain's prescription drug binge is dangerous. To find solutions, he takes over part of a busy GP surgery in East London to try and take patients off their pills and treat them in other ways. His first patient is Wendy, who has been taking pain killers for the last 20 years to deal with chronic pain in her shoulder. Chris is determined to prove to her that drugs don't work, but she'll need a lot of convincing. He devises an experiment - two weeks' worth of medication with a twist: some of the pills are placebos, and some are the real thing, but she doesn't know which is which. (Part 1 of 2) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Class. tbc) CC New Episode
