- 4:00 pm Cycling: Paris-Roubaix Highlights – Highlights from the 114th edition of the Paris-Roubaix Championships in France. Famous for its challenging and treacherous cobblestone sections, the Paris-Roubaix is regarded as the toughest of the Classics on the European cycling calendar. (Cycling)
- 5:00 pm Cycling: InCycle – All the latest cycling news and highlights from across the world. Hosted by Mike Tomalaris. (Cycling)
- 5:30 pm 1916: The Irish Rebellion - Narrated by Liam Neeson, this landmark documentary examines the Easter Rising and the subsequent events that led to the creation of an independent Irish state and, indirectly, to the start of the breakup of the British Empire from an international perspective. This three-part series places the events of the Rising in true historical, political and cultural context as the precursor to an independent Irish state and the disintegration of colonial empires. (Part 2 of 3) (From Ireland) (Documentary Series) (class. tba) CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:35 pm Lost City Of The Gladiators – This is the first discovery of an entire gladiator school with an adjacent cemetery for dead fighters recently found in Austria. Located in the former Roman imperial residence of Carnuntum, only a small portion of the large area has been explored - an area that was located on the important trade routes that connected east and west, north and south. At the collapse of the Roman Empire, the city was abandoned and no settlements were established, allowing researchers to study the period as it was. The gladiator school may not be the only treasure to be found on the site of the lost city of Carnuntum - there may be many, many more. (From Germany) (Documentary) M CC
- 8:35 pm Vietnam: The War That Made Australia - This is the story of the Australian Army Training Team (Vietnam) who, from 1962 to 1972, fought shoulder-to-shoulder with the Vietnamese army and became the most decorated unit in Australian military history. Told through the testimony of unit veterans and the Vietnamese with whom they fought and fought against, this series shines a new and dramatic light on Australia's involvement in the Vietnam War. (Part 3 of 3) (Documentary Series) (Commissioned by SBS) M CC
Final Episode
- 9:35 pm Indian Wedding Race - Each week, this new three-part documentary series goes inside a unique subculture that exists within Australia. The first documentary, Indian Wedding Race, is a humorous and heartfelt look at the real-life journey of two 29-year-old Indian-Australians, Dalvinder and Tarun, as they each embark on a frantically amusing adventure to find love and get married before they turn 30, while juggling the pressures from their very traditional parents and cultural expectations. - 8:30 pm Untold Australia: A Modern Mutiny - Norfolk Island is 5 miles long by 3 miles wide; or, as some would say of this close-knit community, 5 minutes long and 3 minutes wide when it comes to gossip. As one of Australia's most remote external territories, and with a local population descended from the legendary Bounty mutineers, it's no surprise they have their own way of doing things. With their own language, a blend of old seafaring English and Tahitian, and their own system of government, many don't see themselves as Australian – that it says so on their passport is merely 'a technicality'. But recent hard times have forced the island to reach out to Australia for help, and with mainland help comes mainland rules. (From Australia) (Commissioned by SBS) CC New Episode
