- 5:30 pm Building Hitler's Supergun: The Plot To Destroy London - In 1944 the British and the Americans went head to head in a race to destroy a new Nazi secret weapon - an enormous canon with the range to bombard London from France. Large scale practical experiments solve outstanding mysteries, such as whether shells from the Supergun could really have reached London, and how a man groomed to be a future president of the USA (Joe Kennedy) lost his life unnecessarily on a mission to destroy the weapon. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:30 pm Britain's Pompeii - A team of archaeologists are excavating an ancient village in Cambridgeshire, England known as 'The British Pompeii', that has transformed history's picture of life in Bronze Age Britain. Inside perfectly preserved roundhouses, the team has discovered everything from Britain's oldest wheel to swords used in battle. The biggest revelation was proof of technology needed to produce cloth which was never before seen in Britain and proved these villagers' lives were anything but primitive. But behind all the incredible revelations is a mystery. The village is perfectly preserved because it burned to the ground. Was it a terrible accident or a deliberate act of violence? To try and solve this mystery, the team plots the progress of the fire, looks for signs of battle on the swords found around the site and questions if this wealthy village was simply abandoned. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Class. Tba) CC Premiere
- 8:35 pm Walt Disney - Never has a person held such a commanding place in American life. Yet as familiar as his work was to young and old alike, Disney himself was something of an enigma. To his fierce defenders, Disney was a visionary artist and entrepreneur who had changed American popular culture for the better, grounding it once again in a spirit of hopeful promise and shared values. To his detractors, Disney represented everything that was wrong with American culture, from its saccharine sentimentality and simplification of history to its redirection of our attention from reality to fantasy. His life and legacy are unravelled in this intimate biography. (Part 1 of 2) (From the US) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 10:45 pm Strange Signals From Outer Space - For centuries we've looked up at the night sky and wondered; are we alone? We've sent probes to the furthest reaches of the solar system, broadcast messages out into the depths of space, but in all those years we've heard nothing back - until now. In the last few years a mysterious signal from space has shaken astronomy to its core. This is the story of a genuine scientific mystery; the recent discovery, confirmation and on-going attempts to understand the origin of Fast Radio Bursts, enigmatic pulses from deep space that have so far defied explanation. Taking this story as its spine, Horizon will explore humankind's quest to discover if we're alone in the Universe and our attempts to decode messages from deep space. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Class. Tbc) CC Premiere
- 11:45 pm Conchita: Unstoppable - This documentary follows Conchita Wurst, the Queen of Austria and winner of the Eurovision Song Contest 2014 through her time after her overwhelming victory and the preparation for the upcoming 2015 contest. This is a very personal insight into Conchita's way of fulfilling her dreams and her ambitious aim of winning a grammy. (From Germany, in German) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC

- MOVIE:
- 12:45 am The House Of Branching Love - This Finnish battle-of-the-sexes romantic comedy follows the breakup of a thirty-something couple. Hilarity ensues as they date other people and attempt to ruin each other's reputation. Nominated for three Finnish Jussi Awards in 2010, including Best Actor and Best Actress. Directed by Mika Kaurismäki and stars Elina Knihtilä, Hannu-Pekka Björkman and Antti Reini. (From Finland, in Finnish) (Comedy) (2009) (Rpt) MA(S)
- 2:40 am Inquisition - There were many witch hunts in the 17th Century across Britain, with dozens of well known 'witch hunters' scouring the land. The most famous of which was Mathew Hopkins, the 'witch finder general' who was based in Essex. Witches were heretics to Christianity, and the act of witchcraft was considered a crime so foul that all normal legal procedures were superseded, and because the Devil was not going to "confess", it was necessary to gain a confession from the human involved. By all and any means necessary. (Ep.4) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) MA(A,V) CC
- 3:30 am Porn On The Brain - Journalist Martin Daubney is going on a very personal journey to discover the truth behind the headlines that warn of the horrific effects that modern online pornography may be having on children and young people. Martin's own son is four and when he was born Martin walked away from his job as editor of the lad's magazine, Loaded. In his previous life he was often accused of peddling porn. Today he needs to return to the murky subject of pornography to find out what effect it may be having on the vulnerable brains of kids. In the program, Martin meets neuroscientists, addiction specialists and educators who discuss the effects of hardcore pornography on the teenage brain. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) MA(S,N,A) CC
- 4:25 am Food Lovers' Guide To Australia - Maeve O'Meara and Joanna Savill continue to explore the best food and produce around. In this episode, Maeve discovers the secrets of saffron and a few facts about the world's most expensive spice, and later we revel in Byron Bay cookery writer Nadine Abensur's 'new vegetarian' creations. - 10:30 pm The Legacy - Gro has left Grønnegaard, with Robert and Melody, seeking to process her grief and focus on her little family. The solitude gives them food for thought, and Robert speaks his mind about Gro's future. Frederik's and Pitu's work pays off, but they are operating on the edge of the law, and must be careful not to get caught. Emil, having a hard time dealing with Melody's absence, chooses to focus on Frederik's wellbeing. But the intense scrutiny isn't exactly beneficial to Frederik's endeavours, and soon more truths are revealed than he would have wished. Signe's farming takes off, but the more she partners with Karin, the more she is confronted with their different ways of living. (S.3 Ep.5) (From Denmark, in Danish) (Drama Series) (Class. tbc)
- 11:35 pm The Legacy - Emil and Gro disagree on how to bring up Melody. Gro needs more time with Melody and Robert. She urges Emil to think more about himself and sends him back to Grønnegaard on his own. Signe makes her peace with Karin, but she soon has other worries as Aksel gets an offer that affects their plans for the future. Without Pitu to help him, Frederik is forced to put the case against Argus on hold. Instead, missing Hannah and needing a distraction, he throws himself into another mission to help Pitu and the youngsters. Emil is reconciled with Frederik. Plagued by guilt, he backs Frederik's collaboration with the youngsters. (S.3 Ep.6) (From Denmark, in Danish) (Drama Series) (Class. Tbc)

- 2:00 am The Seventies - *What's Goin' On - Rarely has there been a decade of such musical diversity as the 1970s. Many of the greatest rock & roll bands of all time – the Rolling Stones, Led Zeppelin, the Who – were in peak form; new artists – The Eagles, David Bowie, Bruce Springsteen – were emerging and altering the musical landscape. Sixties chart toppers like Marvin Gaye and Stevie Wonder found new and deeper voices in the 70s. And of course the 1970s was also the decade of disco and punk. At opposite ends of the musical spectrum, both disco and punk ignited broad cultural changes that came to be equally emblematic of the decade. By examining these and other artists and genres we'll form a provocative understanding of what America was all about in the 1970s. (S.1 Ep.4) (From the US) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) PG CC
