2022-06-05	1630	Culture & Society	Seed	Premiere	Seed	0	In December 2019, Australia experienced the worst bushfires in living memory. Milton Ulladulla Hospital, a small hospital on the New South Wales South Coast, was caught in its path. Although the hospital itself survived, several staff lost their homes, and in the midst of defending their towns from the fires, came to work to care for their patients. But their bravery came with a cost, as many suffered from anxiety, depression, and trauma as they struggled to rebuild their lives once the fires had been put out. Stuart Emslie, the operations manager of the hospital, struck up an unlikely friendship with Padmini Pai, a social worker, and together they created Seed, a program designed to bring healing and transformation to their community. Tidal levels are increasing, crops are failing, storms are more powerful, and land is being eroded - all of this impacting the children of the region. On Australia's doorstep the Indigenous peoples of the Pacific have nowhere to run as climatic changes bring frequent disaster to their shores. Living with constant fear, island communities are forced to face the prospect of having to relocate away from their ancestral homes and start a new life as climate refugees without the connection to their past and sacred sites. 2022-06-05	1730	History	The Rise Of The Nazis		Night Of The Long Knives	01	3	Adolf Hitler has been chancellor of Germany for just under a year. It is a challenging balancing act. On the one hand, the Nazis must be mindful of President Paul von Hindenburg and Vice Chancellor Franz von Papen, who are members of Germany's traditional aristocratic ruling elite. On the other, there is the Nazis' own power base - the stormtroopers - millions of angry, disenfranchised men who wreak havoc on German streets.	UNITED KINGDOM	English-100	2019	RPT	PG	a v	Y		Y

But suddenly doubts arise among the nobles about the succession to the throne and his uncle receives the crown. After the coronation, the two young heirs to the throne disappear from the face of the earth. Have they been kidnapped or murdered? The new King Richard III remains silent on the matter. But the doubts about his accession to the throne remain. In the 17th century, bones are found during building work, confirming the old suspicion against Richard III as a child murderer. What happened to the two boys in the Tower? A cold case from the age of the knights in England, in which numerous new clues have been found in recent years. 2022-06-05	2130	Nature & Environment	Naples: Under The Volcanic Threat		Naples: Under The Volcanic Threat		0	Between Vesuvius, the Aeolian Islands and Etna, Italy is home to some of the highest risk volcanoes on Earth. Today, experts all agree to say that Naples' region is exposed to a major threat - an imminent eruption. But no one can tell when this will happen, and where the danger will come from. How can we protect the bay? How have people been living for millennia with the threat of spectacularly destructive eruptions? Both a historical and a scientific investigation, using cutting-edge science along with spectacular aerial footage, this film follows an international team of experts as they peer into the depths of these fire mountains to prevent a future tragedy. Together, they explore and model the complex geological process behind eruptions to predict the possible scenarios and improve their forecasting. A race against time to protect the 3-million people living at these volcanoes' feet.	FRANCE	English-60; Italian-40	2021	RPT	G		Y	Y

2022-06-10	2130	History	Scotland, Slavery And Statues	Premiere	Scotland, Slavery And Statues		0	The death of George Floyd in the US sent shockwaves across the world. The Black Lives Matter movement intensified. And Scotland was not getting off lightly. The epicentre of this was in Scotland's capital city, Edinburgh. A 150-foot statue of Henry Dundas ignited a fiery debate in 2017 that continues to this day. Henry Dundas, a Scot, was one of the most influential 18th century Tory politicians who held powerful roles during the height of the British Empire. This documentary follows the deeply personal debate over how Dundas should be acknowledged on the monument. It shows the twists and turns of this four-year story including how Scotland's debate triggered a debate in Canada on renaming Toronto's Dundas Street, and how the toppling of Bristol's Colston statue impacted on decisions made in Scotland. How will Scotland as a country come to terms with its long and often hidden involvement in slavery?	SCOTLAND	English-100	2020				Y

What the Germans didn't know was that the body belonged not to a British officer, but to a Welsh tramp who'd been planted within their reach as a mode of Allied counterintelligence.
