2022-06-26	1730	History	Forgotten Frontlines	Final Episode	Nazi Titanic, The	01	6	When Joseph Goebbels featured the luxurious SS Cap Arcona in a propaganda film about the Titanic, he never imagined this German ocean liner would meet a similar tragic fate. Over the course of the war, one of the most opulent ships ever built would serve many functions - a propagandic coup, a transport vessel, and eventually a concentration camp. This is the story of the Nazi Titanic, a floating metaphor for the war and its casualties. From one of the most uxurious ocean liners ever built to a floating death machine, the tale is even more tragic than Goebbels first intended.	CANADA	English-100	2021		PG		Y	Y

2022-06-28	1055	Culture & Society	The Art Of France	Art Of France Series 1 Ep 3, The	01	3	This final episode of Andrew Graham-Dixon's latest series The Art of France begins with the Impressionists. Andrew plunges into one of the most wildly creative periods in the history of art, when France was changing at a rapid pace and angry young artists would re-invent how to paint, finding their muses in the bars, brothels and cabarets of Belle Epoque Paris and turning the world of art on its head. Monet, Degas and friends launched a febrile conversation about the role of painting in the modern world that would pave the way for just about every modern art movement of note, from the Cubists to the Fauves, from the Surrealists to the Existentialists and from conceptual artists to the Abstract Expressionists. 2022-06-29	1050	Health, Science & Technology	Revolution: Ideas That Changed The World	Telescope, The	01	1	The telescope allowed the greatest discovery ever - the universe itself. It is a tale of extraordinary twists and turns, involving a sea-shore plant, an ancient scholar, a New York property boom and a spilt bottle of mercury. Without these events, we may never have discovered the cosmos. We begin in Portugal, with some of the oldest man-made structures in the world, stone chambers that indicate the arrival of spring using a star called Aldebran. Over millennia, ever more elaborate constructions are aligned with the heavens, revealing our ancient fascination with the stars. But telescopes need lenses and they begin with rock crystals. In ancient Mesopotamia these found objects are treasured for their ability to distort light. By the 8th Century BC, in Baghdad, the first experiments in optics begin, culminating in a treatise by one of the greatest Arab scholars, Ibn Haytham. Many regard this as the birth of science itself. 2022-06-30	1050	Health, Science & Technology	Revolution: Ideas That Changed The World	Airplane, The	01	2	The airplane gave us a great superpower - the ability to fly. But how we got it is a story full of passion, danger and death. We start with a Moorish scholar jumping off a cliff 11 centuries ago, with feathers on his arms. A modern wing-suit flyer illustrates the feat. The key to flight is to master the air. That starts even earlier with the Chinese, who invent the kite. It proves that a heavier than air object can fly by producing lift.	UNITED KINGDOM	English-100	2019		PG		Y	Y

Told from the perspective of Erwin's son Manfred, it is the story of what happens when a career soldier runs afoul of a dictator. Highly decorated and one of Hitler's favourite commanders in the early years of WWII, the 'Desert Fox,' as his British adversaries labelled him, was somewhat of an enigma. Never a member of the Nazi party, Rommel detested the blending of politics and war. He would quickly discover that both were always in play in Hitler's Germany. Rommel was somewhat naive to Hitler's ways until the latter days of the Afrika Korps defeat in North Africa in 1943. By then, Rommel started to surmise that Germany's fate was sealed. In charge of the famed and flawed Atlantic Wall in western Europe in late 1943, Rommel tried his best to prepare France for the Allied invasion. In the end, it would not be enough. D-Day's success only reinforced Rommel's belief that Adolf Hitler should sue for peace in the west. It was an opinion that Hitler found treasonous.	USA	English-100	2021							Y
