2019-07-26	1600	History	Railways Of The Great War		Railways And Remembrance	01	5	In this final episode, Michael explores the aftermath of this earth-shattering conflict. For four years, the railways had fed the front line with vast numbers of men, munitions and supplies. But even after the Armistice had been signed in a railway carriage, the work of the railways was not done. As Britain continued to mourn its dead the railways played an important part in their remembrance. Michael hears stories of the railways' war heroes and meets a remarkable railway wagon, used to honour them. He hears how the railways helped give birth to battlefield tourism and in the cemeteries of Ypres he meets the great grandchildren of some of the fallen.	UNITED KINGDOM	English-100	2014	RPT	PG		Y
