- 5:35 pm Churchill and the Fascist Plot - The cloak-and-dagger story of how Churchill and MI5 hunted down Britain's fascist sympathisers, who threatened to undermine the war effort. In May 1940, Britain was in great peril. New Prime Minister Winston Churchill was facing a Nazi invasion and the threat of Britain's own fascist sympathisers, the 'fifth column'. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:35 pm Byzantium: A Tale of Three Cities - Capital of a New Empire - In the final episode, Simon Sebag Montefiore discovers surprises in Istanbul as it rose to become the imperial capital and Islam's most powerful city. Visiting the great mosques and palaces built by the Ottoman emperors, he tells the stories behind them - of royal concubines, murderous bodyguards and sultans both the powerful and the depraved. He shows how the Christians, Muslims and Jews of the city once co-existed before the waves of nationalist rebellions brought the Ottoman empire to its knees. In the 20th century the ancient capital was once more transformed by the new secular vision of Ataturk. (Part 3 of 3) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) PG CC Final
- 8:35 pm The Murder Trial - For the first time ever, remotely operated cameras are placed inside a British criminal court to capture a murder trial in its entirety, as Nat Fraser is tried for the murder of his wife. Her body has never been found, there is no weapon, no crime scene and her husband appears to have a cast iron alibi for the day she disappeared. Fraser was first brought to trial in 2003 for the murder of his wife - he was found guilty. But on appeal the conviction was quashed in 2011. In April 2012, Nat Fraser was sent back to the High Court in Edinburgh for a fresh trial, 14 years after his wife's disappearance. A new jury was sworn in to hear all the evidence against him. Would they find him innocent or convict him of murder? (From the UK) (Documentary) M(L) CC Premiere
- 10:25 pm Obama at War - When President Barack Obama took office in 2008, he had campaigned on ending the war in Iraq and keeping the U.S. out of new military conflicts. But Obama now finds himself exactly where he didn't want to be: trying to defeat a brutal terrorist group in Iraq and Syria without dragging America into a prolonged regional conflict. How did we get here? In this program, veteran journalist Martin Smith examines the Obama administration's complicated struggle to deal with the deadly civil war in Syria, now in its fifth year - and explores how the accompanying rise of insurgents have raised the stakes. Drawing on interviews with key military and diplomatic leaders, the film is an intense look at the heated debates within the administration about when and how to get involved in Syria. (From the US) (Documentary) M(A,V) Premiere
- 11:30 pm Movie: Lantana - When psychiatrist Dr Valerie Somers disappears, Homicide Detective Leon Zat and his partner Claudia attempt to solve the mystery of her absence. As they investigate, a complex web of love, sex and deceit emerges - drawing in four related couples whose various partners are distrustful and suspicious about each other's involvement. Directed by Ray Lawrence, and stars Anthony LaPaglia, Geoffrey Rush and Barbara Hershey. (From Australia) (Drama) (2001) (Rpt) M(A,S,L) CC

- 1:40 am Movie: Walesa: Man of Hope - This biopic tribute to Lech Walesa, the Nobel peace prize-winning politician and human rights activist, is an enjoyable look at an unconventional hero. How could one man have such an impact on the modern world? The film captures the metamorphosis of a simple man - from an electric technician at the Gdansk shipyard who fought for labour rights to a charismatic leader who awoke the desire for freedom in millions of people and led to changes that exceeded their wildest dreams. (From Poland, in Polish) (Biography) (2013) (Rpt) M(V,L)
- 3:50 am Our Food - North Wales - Food critic Giles Coren and the team head to North Wales, where food is about making the best of the basics. Giles follows in the footsteps of the Welsh drovers who walked cattle hundreds of miles to market, while Alex Langlands heads to Snowdonia to meet some of their hardiest sheep. James Wong learns what it takes to farm leeks on an industrial scale, and the team discovers what makes Welsh sea trout so incredibly special. (From the UK) (Food Series) (Part 2 of 4) (Rpt) G CC

- 7:30 pm Fat vs. Sugar - What's worst for you, fat or sugar? It's a question that's been generating huge amounts of heat in the world's media, from the outer reaches of the Internet to the front pages of the New York Times. So what's the scientific truth? This documentary delves into this debate to get to the bottom of it with the help of twin doctors Chris and Xand Van Tullekan. In the greatest traditions of investigative science they're experimenting on their own bodies, with one on a low fat diet and one on a low sugar diet. This program looks at what sugar and fat do to the human body and which of these twin evils is worse. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 8:30 pm The Island with Bear Grylls: Women's Island - Bear Grylls explores the survival instincts and behaviour of 14 women stranded on a remote, uninhabited Pacific island. Left with just the clothes they stand up in and a few basic tools, they're been given no food and just a day's supply of drinking water. Like their counterparts on the male island, these women will be utterly alone for six weeks, left to film everything themselves. As the island comes into sight, it's a far cry from the postcard vision of paradise some of the women had been expecting: more mud than sand and dense, unforgiving jungle right up to the water's edge. (S.2,Ep.1) (From the UK) (Documentary Series) M(L) CC New Series Premiere
