2019-10-01	2755	History	Great British Railway Journeys	Birmingham To Worcester	07	11	Every train ride begins with a whistle and Michael Portillo's new railway journey is no exception, blasting off from Birmingham's jewellery quarter to the sound of the Acme whistle, manufactured there since 1884. A visit to the city's town hall reveals a magnificent organ and the location for a celebrated music festival. Travelling south to Kidderminster, Michael reports for duty at the Post Office, where he sorts the letters and discovers more about the great postal innovator, Sir Rowland Hill, before heading out to deliver the Royal Mail. 19th century quack doctors and their bogus remedies are exposed in Worcester, where Michael discovers the origins of the British Medical Association. Across town lies the palatial Royal Holloway College, now part of the University of London, where Michael discovers the institution's philanthropic roots. Moving on to Berkshire, he drops in at a factory that manufactures a famously sleep-inducing beverage with historic roots. This journey ends riverside at Henley-on-Thames where Michael takes to the water and learns that rowing in an eight is a challenging business.	UNITED KINGDOM	English-100	2016	RPT	G		Y

2019-10-02	1530	History	The Churchills	March To War, The	01	2	In 1932, Winston Churchill visited Germany to research his ancestor's biography but missed meeting Hitler. Starkey argues that Churchill's so-called 'wilderness years' of the 1930s were misnamed as the decade spent writing the biography of John Churchill enabled Winston to see a parallel between Hitler and Louis XIV, the seemingly unstoppable conqueror of the rest of Europe, whom John Churchill soundly defeated at the battle of Blenheim in 1704. In 1938, when the fourth and last volume of the biography was published, Neville Chamberlain made his futile trip to Munich, where he was betrayed by Hitler. Winston foresaw the German's treachery and in two years' time found his country anxious to return him as their leader.	UNITED KINGDOM	English-100	2017	RPT	PG	a v		Y
