- 5:00 pm Cycling: The Samsung Bike Lane - The Bike Lane showcases the very best in cycling, from pro tips, to the latest race news, celebrity challenges and gear reviews. Hosted by Matthew Keenan. (An SBS Production) (Cycling) CC
- 5:30 pm Churchill's First World War - Drama-documentary about Winston Churchill's extraordinary experiences during the Great War, with intimate letters to his wife Clementine allowing the story to be told largely in his own words. Just 39 and at the peak of his powers running the Royal Navy, Churchill in 1914 dreamt of Napoleonic glory, but suffered a catastrophic fall into disgrace and humiliation over the Dardanelles disaster. The film follows his road to redemption, beginning in the trenches of Flanders in 1916, revealing how he became the 'godfather' of the tank and his forgotten contribution to final victory in 1918 as Minister of Munitions. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:35 pm Ultimate Tutankhamun - Nearly a century after Howard Carter's momentous discovery of the tomb of Tutankhamun, Egyptologist Dr Chris Naunton returns to Carter's vast excavation files. So far, Chris has discovered that Tutankhamun betrayed his father's revolution and died in a battle far from home. He was buried in a tiny tomb with second-hand grave goods, and strangest of all, a chemical analysis of his mummy has proved it is burnt. But what mysterious process could char the skin of a mummy that is already wrapped? The next step in Chris's quest to reveal the ultimate secrets of Tutankhamun is to find out what might have caused the mummy to burn. (Part 2 of 2) (From the US) (Documentary) PG CC **Final****
- 8:35 pm The Seventies - The United States Vs Richard Nixon & Television in the Seventies - The Seventies is a new four-part documentary series that examines the individuals and events that influenced and shaped a decade that had a profound impact on America and the world. The first episode examines the poorly executed political burglary, which led Richard Nixon to be the only president in the history of the United States to resign while in office. Then, the 70's introduced a new sophistication in TV programming and unique new formats with shows like Saturday Night Live, and Monday Night Football. Beginning in Warsaw, Michael is puzzled by how a city famously razed to the ground after WWII can appear so beautifully preserved. Inspired by the music and story of Poland's national icon Frederic Chopin, Michael takes to the floor to dance the polonaise with high school students rehearsing for their leavers' ball. Then it's on to the ancient capital of Poland, Krakow, where Michael lunches in a milk bar and takes a tour in an iconic vehicle of the communist era. - 4:25 pm Poh & Co. Bitesize - A sneak peek into the new series which sees Poh entering an exciting new stage of her life, with her husband, family and friends, and two pet dogs, all along for the ride.
- 4:30 pm Carthage's Lost Warriors - 146 BC: Carthage, the proud capital of the vast Carthaginian Empire, is ablaze. Marauding Romans are mercilessly slaughtering and pillaging. Any survivors face a terrifying fate as slaves on Roman galleys or in their quarries. Escaping the bloody carnage is impossible...or is it? Could some of the once-mighty Carthaginians have got away? And even more incredibly – could they have turned west on an epic journey across the vast Atlantic Ocean to new shores? Did they set foot in South America, long before Columbus ever walked the face of the Earth? Ancient documents suggest there was a Carthaginian getaway, and modern science has found evidence to support these extraordinary claims. (From Germany, in English & German) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 5:30 pm Hundred Years War - Trouble In The Family - As the kings of England and the kings of France fought for possession of the crown of France, The Hundred Years' War would become the longest and the bloodiest conflict in medieval history, replacing the feudal order with an order of nations and propelling France and England into the modern age. Appearing amidst the splendour of the medieval world, cultural historian Dr Nina Ramirez takes viewers on a journey through 116 years of riotous, plague-ridden warfare, exploring how, as the effects of warfare reverberated in every aspect of artistic, cultural and religious life, representing the final divorce between France and England, effects of which can still be seen in rivalries today.
