2017-10-08	1930	Culture & Society	The Greeks	New Series Premiere	Cavemen To Kings	01	1	They were an extraordinary people born of white rock and blue sea. They invented democracy, distilled logic and reason, wrote plays to plumb the deepest recesses of the soul and captured the perfection of the human form in athletics and art. Quite simply, the Greeks created our world. Ancient Greece was born out of chaos. And yet, it alone became the cornerstone of Western civilisation. Archaeologists, historians, scientists, athletes, actors and artists excavate the past and explore its impact on our world's present, and ultimately on the future. As the early Greeks rise from nothing and change everything, they lay the groundwork for a revolution in human thought.	USA	English-100	2016					Y
2017-10-08	2030	History	Robert Redford's The West	New Series Premiere	America Divided	01	1	Actor and host Robert Redford captures the incredible sweep of one of America's most turbulent periods: from the post-Civil War to the closing of the Western Frontier, portraying the remarkable real-life stories behind the infamous Wild West legends: men like Jesse James, Billy the Kid, Wyatt Earp, Crazy Horse, Sitting Bull and George Custer. The Civil War ends in 1865, and America looks West to repair the nation. As unrest in the South continues, rebel fighter Jesse James becomes a politically-minded outlaw fighting to rekindle the flames of the Confederacy. Out West, conflict with the Sioux Indian leaders Sitting Bull and Crazy Horse threaten America's continued expansion. Crazy Horse makes his stand against the US military at the Battle of 100 Slain, triggering another war.	USA	English-100	2016
2017-10-08	2125	History	Robert Redford's The West	New Episode	Two Front War	01	2	Between the deep unrest in the South and the mounting war with the Plains Indians in the West, America's military is stretched thin. President Ulysses S Grant decides to uphold a peace policy with the Sioux. The quelled tensions in the West allow Thomas Durant and the Union Pacific to complete the country's first Transcontinental Railroad, opening the floodgates for America's Western settlers. But the railroad boom also provides outlaw Jesse James with a new target, and the Southern newspapers seize on James's train robbery exploits, turning him into a Southern hero. As America's railroad boom collapses, President Grant's hopes to repair the nation by expanding West begin to collapse, as 'The Panic of 1873' sends the country plummeting into a severe economic depression. 2017-10-08	2220	History	Genius		Guns: Colt Vs Wesson	01	1	These are the men and women who solved the world's problems, changing the way we live through innovation, and creating history-altering inventions. This is the story of the unseen forces behind the greatest races for innovation, the moments when the brightest minds were given the rare opportunity to change the world. In 1836, Samuel Colt changes the way that wars are fought with his patent for the revolver, and profits enormously from the invention. But when Colt fires his assistant Rollin White for suggesting an improvement on his design, White brings his innovative idea to Smith and Wesson, giving birth to the first true 'arms' race. As the Civil War breaks out, both the Union and the Confederacy are in dire need of arms, putting Colt and Smith and Wesson in a competition that only one manufacturer can survive.
