- 7:30 pm Building The Ancient City: Athens - The first town of over one million people was built more than 2000 years ago. Without any of our modern conveniences, and what we would consider necessities today, how did they function? Professor Andrew Wallace-Hadrill explores the remains of these ancient megalopolises, explaining how to make a city work without the benefits of modern technology. In the first episode, Andrew takes us on a journey across stunning locations in Greece to find out how 2,500 years ago, Athens gave birth to the idea of a city run by free citizens. Every aspect of daily life from defence to waste disposal was controlled, not by a king, but by the Athenians themselves. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Part 1 of 2) G CC New Series Premiere
- 8:35 pm Genius - Genius tells the story of the men and women that changed the way we live. These are the heroes, legendary icons, luminaries who changed the world through monumental innovations and staggering ingenuity. They gave us the aeroplane and the television, the six-gun, the A-bomb and more. But behind every great genius is a great rival, an unstoppable adversary with incredible vision, determination and ambition. Out of their struggles came the greatest breakthroughs. In this stunning four-part series, we hear the stories of how the ultimate rivals for posterity clashed, lost everything or triumphed. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Part 1 of 4) (Class tba) CC New Series Premiere
- 10:20 pm No Direction Home: Bob Dylan - Screened in two parts, and described as the "most important rock documentary of the last 20 years", this film draws from hundreds of hours of unseen footage and rare recordings, in-depth interviews and revealing photographs. Directed by Martin Scorsese, it strikes a remarkable balance between telling the story of one man's journey, and at the same time placing that story within the greater canvas of human events, such as the effects of Dylan's controversial 1966 tour of the British Isles. (From the US) (Documentary Series) (Part 1 of 2) (Rpt) M(L) CC

Sunday November 8th, 2015

- 12:25 am Movie: Vargas: Neptune's Thunder - Part 2 - Police Captain Adamsberg must re-open a mysterious old murder case connected to the disappearance of his brother. Adamsberg resumes his search for the Trident serial killer, who got his name because of the three-pronged weapon with which he kills his victims. When a new victim is found in Canada, accusations point to Adamsberg, just like his brother 30 years before. Based on Fred Vargas' renowned psycho-thriller. When we first met Charlie and Dan, Charlie had recently given birth to identical twin girls. Born dangerously premature at just 23 weeks, baby Mia didn't survive and her sister Isobel was left fighting for life. But Izzy defied all the odds and despite the health problems that such a premature birth has left her with, she's now a lively toddler. When Sara and Mark met they already had four teenage children between them. We first met them when they were expecting their second baby. Two years on, 41-year-old Sara and 47-year-old Mark are also grandparents! (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) M(A,L) CC

- 11:00 pm The Salient - This is a documentary film about one of the most contested spots of the Great War: the half circle north and east of the Flemish city of Ypres that protruded into enemy territory and became known as the Ypres Salient. Just a few miles across, more than a million people were killed or wounded in this small area during four years of bitter fighting. Over time the Salient came to symbolise every description heard in conjunction with the Great War: sacrifice, courage, honour and duty just as much as chaos, slaughter, calamity and utter senselessness.
