Sunday November 15th, 2015

- 5:35 pm D-Day: The Soldiers' Story - *Beachhead - On the 6th of June 1944, tens of thousands of Allied troops landed on the coast of Normandy in the largest amphibious assault ever. For many of the young US soldiers, this war against the Nazis seemed almost like an adventure. What lay in store for them was bloody carnage on the beaches of France. This program meticulously records the sequence of events by means of original footage, photos, documents and interviews with survivors. (From Germany, in English, French and German) (Documentary Series) (Part 3 of 4) (Rpt) PG CC
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:30 pm Building The Ancient City: Rome - *Rome - The first town of over one million people was built more than 2000 years ago. Without any of our modern conveniences, and what we would consider necessities today, how did they function? Professor Andrew Wallace-Hadrill explores the remains of these ancient megalopolises, explaining how to make a city work without the benefits of modern technology. In the final episode, Andrew takes us up ancient tower blocks, down early sewers, and above 2000-year-old harbour basins still filled with water, to find out. He'll reveal how Rome surpassed all those cities from the ancient world that had gone before. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Part 2 of 2) (Class tba) CC New Episode
- 8:35 pm Genius - Genius tells the story of the men and women that changed the way we live. These are the heroes, legendary icons, luminaries who changed the world through monumental innovations and staggering ingenuity. They gave us the aeroplane and the television, the six-gun, the A-bomb and more. But behind every great genius is a great rival, an unstoppable adversary with incredible vision, determination and ambition. Out of their struggles came the greatest breakthroughs. In this stunning four-part series, we hear the stories of how the ultimate rivals for posterity clashed, lost everything or triumphed. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Part 2 of 4) (Class tba) CC New Episode
- 10:20 pm No Direction Home: Bob Dylan - Part two covers the period of Bob Dylan's life when, at 23, he is already a newsworthy phenomenon. Finding a new musical vocabulary to capture the complexity of a seismic cultural shift, Dylan decides to add electricity to his music and is labelled a sell-out. Director Martin Scorsese delicately balances Dylan's internal world with signpost images from the external world. Dylan's music is the backdrop as the war in Vietnam escalates, the free speech movement in Berkeley signals a new youth movement, and the nightly news brings home images people would never have dreamed of. Scorsese explores Dylan's personal world of constant touring and press conferences, while taking viewers on an emotional, musical and intellectual journey. (From the US) (Documentary Series) (Part 2 of 2) (Rpt) M(L) CC
- 12:10 am Springsteen And I - Forty years ago, Bruce Springsteen burst onto the rock scene and changed it forever. His music defines a generation, but behind the songs were remarkable stories about the fans who lived them. This documentary provides a unique insight into the powerful bond between a recording artist and those who connect so profoundly with his music. With never-before-seen footage of Bruce's performances and his fans' reflections on their own personal insights and experiences with his incredible music, this is a film for the people, by the people, filled with the songs the fans loved and the stories they lived. - 7:30 pm Wild Amazon - *Cradle Of Life - Dominating the northern half of South America, the Amazon does nature on a grand scale. Home to some of the most unusual wildlife like the red faced uakari, the Amazon is the world's great refuge for jaguars, harpy eagles, and Amazonian manatees. Thousands of miles of dense forest conceal a hidden world of extraordinary stories of adaptation and survival. This documentary observes fish that can leap one meter out of the water to catch prey, armadillos that swim through flooded forests, frogs with toxic skin, and flowers that trap beetles to change sex overnight. However, human activity is threatening the Amazon's ecology. (From Germany, in English) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) G CC
- 8:30 pm Movie: *O Brother, Where Art Thou? - Based loosely on Homer's Odyssey this Coen brothers gem follows the misadventures of escaped con Ulysses Everett McGill (Academy Award®-winner George Clooney) and his none-too-bright sidekicks Pete (John Turturro) and Delmar (Tim Blake Nelson). The trio tries to make its way back to Ulysses' Penelope (Oscar-winner Holly Hunter) before she can marry again. With nothing to lose and still in shackles, their hasty run takes them on an incredible journey full of crazy experiences and colourful characters.
