Sunday November 22nd, 2015

- 7:35 pm Scotland: Rome's Final Frontier - The incredible story of how Scotland became the Roman Empire's toughest military challenge. At the height of its power, Rome boasted the domination of millions of people and vast tracts of lands as far east as Syria, Egypt in the south, Spain in the west and the Germanic wildernesses in the north. In 43AD Emperor Claudius' forces invaded and conquered Britain, but there was one small part of these barbarian lands that wasn't so easy to crush. Through some of Scotland's most extraordinary Roman sites and illuminating new archaeology, historian Dr Fraser Hunter shows how Scotland and its people defied an onslaught of Roman imperial power for over a century. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) G CC
- 8:35 pm Genius - Planes/The Newspaper - The Wright Brothers build and fly the world's first airplane, but they keep it a secret, leaving an opening for motor designer, Glenn Curtiss, to swoop in and compete to be the first to fly in public. Joseph Pulitzer's journalistic integrity is tested when young millionaire, William Randolph Hearst, sets out to be the king of the newspaper industry, using a gossip rag to revolutionise the future of journalism. ## Saturday November 28th, 2015

- 1:30 am Borgen - *Plant a Tree - Birgitte Nyborg's government is about to negotiate the environmental element of the new reform package called A Common Future. Birgitte wants a multi-party agreement, but must face the reality of parties who cannot and will not compromise. Kasper convinces her that underhand tactics can help win her a majority for the reform, but this has grave consequences for the party. Katrine receives an unusual job offer which puts her personal beliefs to the test. At home, Birgitte's children are clearly affected by their mother's work-related stress; Laura in particular struggles with her absence. (From Denmark, in Danish) (Drama Series) (Rpt) M(S,A)
- 2:35 am Borgen - *Them and Us - Internal strife among the coalition partners continues as the right wing submits a bill that will lower the age of criminal responsibility from 14 to 12 years. Several Labour Party members support the proposal, leaving Birgitte in the minority in parliament. Kasper takes personal offence to the proposed bill, and when an incident happens to right wing leader Svend Age Madsenn, the proposal receives public support and the pressure grows on Birgitte. At home, Birgitte struggles to deal with her daughter's illness, and in particular the treatment which is being recommended for her. (From Denmark, in Danish) (Drama Series) (Rpt) M(S,A)
- 3:45 am Borgen - *What Is Lost Inwardly Must Be Gained Outwardly: Part 1 - Birgitte's government has run out of steam - the internal differences are growing and only compromise legislation is being passed, which does not really satisfy anyone. Opinion polls indicate that Birgitte is likely to lose the next election. She really needs a popular cause and is therefore very tempted when the businessman Joachim Crohne draws her attention to the central African country of Kharun, on the brink of civil war. Crohne suggests that Birgitte should attempt to broker peace in the conflict, thereby gaining popularity for herself and also helping to restore Denmark's tarnished reputation after the cartoon crisis. (From Denmark, in Danish) (Drama Series) (Rpt) M(A) CC
