From the tension and rivalries that threatened to tear it apart centuries ago to the present-day Scotland; a major player both economically and politically. We discover why, after the early Scottish monarchs established a border and developed a cordial relationship with its powerful neighbour England, things turned bloody on the battlefield. The Wars of Independence and those who fought them are still revered in Scotland today by all political persuasions ensuring that the nation remained free and sovereign until the Union with England in 1707. 2021-04-18	2210	Health, Science & Technology	Pluto: Back From The Dead		Pluto: Back From The Dead		0	In 2015, a tiny spacecraft called New Horizon's arrived at the very edge of the Solar System and took the first ever close up images of the Dwarf Planet Pluto. The data it sent back left the scientific world speechless. Once thought to be geologically dead, the images from 'New Horizons' have revealed Pluto to be an active world of stunning complexity. The pictures contained a bewildering array of unexpected features. There were mountains carved from ice, a nitrogen glacier that appeared to be moving and a recently active volcano. This programme tells the incredible story by meeting the team responsible, and by exploring the close-up imagery of Pluto's mysterious surface in extraordinary detail. 2021-04-18	2425	Health, Science & Technology	Hugh's Fat Fight		Hugh's Fat Fight Series 1 Ep 1	01	1	Bad eating habits start when we are children and to prove it, Hugh asks a group of 7-year-olds to do the weekly supermarket shop without their mums and dads. Unsurprisingly, most of the kids head for the cereal section, where they pick from any number of brightly coloured, highly sugared breakfast cereals. But do their parents realise how much sugar is in the boxes? Hugh challenges the big brands over their lack of transparency when it comes to their cereal labels. 2021-04-18	2535	Health, Science & Technology	Hugh's Fat Fight		Hugh's Fat Fight Series 1 Ep 2	01	2	Hugh is surprised to learn bottles of fruit juice and smoothies can contain as much sugar as a can of fizzy pop. He is also confused that the labels on the bottles seem to suggest that anything up to 330ml is a single portion size, when in fact the government recommends not drinking any more than 150ml of juice or smoothies a day. Hugh also turns the spotlight on our most popular high street restaurant chains, because children are eating out twice as much as they did in the 1970s. He challenges the restaurants to reduce the amount of sugar in their puddings, to put calorie information on their children's menus, and to stop selling bottomless fizzy drinks. Meanwhile, up in Newcastle, it is six months since Hugh launched his attempt to change the eating habits of a whole city. It has got off to a slow start, but after staging a big exercise event on the High Street and with Ross Noble's help on social media, it soon starts to take off. And, after almost 100,000 people sign Hugh's letter to the Health Secretary, he's finally gets the interview he's been after for months, discovering some exciting changes that are on the horizon. 2021-04-23	2325	History	Woodstock		Woodstock	00	0	In August 1969, nearly half a million people gathered at a farm in upstate New York to hear music. What happened over the next three days, however, was far more than a concert. It would become a legendary event - one that would define a generation and mark the end of one of the most turbulent decades in modern history. Occurring just weeks after an American set foot on the moon, the Woodstock music festival took place against a backdrop of a nation in conflict over sexual politics, civil rights, and the Vietnam War. A sense of an America in transition - a handoff of the country between generations with far different values and ideals - was tangibly present at what promoters billed as 'An Aquarian Exposition: 3 Days of Peace and Music'. 2021-04-24	1635	History	The Great Escape		Great Escape, The	0	0	Winter, 1944. At the heart of Nazi Germany, 76 pilots - the British, the Canadians, the Norwegian and French, who were held in a prison camp of the Luftwaffe, escaped. The tunnel used for their flight was built in the greatest secrecy, under the nose of the German jailers. This historical epic, immortalised in 1963 by John Sturges' movie 'The Great Escape' with Steve Mac Queen, went round the world. But the real story of these men overtakes by far the fiction imagined by Hollywood. Among the witnesses of this documentary is Jack Lyon, one of the last survivors of this adventure.
