- 8:30 pm Marlon Brando: An Actor Named Desire - Marlon Brando excited our imagination and generated more clichés than any other star with his aura; powerful performances, extravagant beauty, rebel attitude, and a career path that had never been seen before in the history of cinema. He not only revolutionised the profession with a new way of acting, in just a few epic roles he also became an icon and a real inspiration for an entire generation of youth. But there was another person hidden behind the Hollywood image: a private, secret Brando. Away from the spotlights, his life was a dark novel, a never-ending road leading to increasing neurosis and self-destruction. Ten years after his death, SBS presents a fresh and unflinching look at the most legendary actor of all times. (From France, in English) (Documentary) (class tba) CC Premiere
