- 8:30 pm 24 Hours In Emergency - *Grin and Bear It - This week's episode focuses on the different ways that people deal with pain and how the care and support of friends and family can help you get through almost anything. Richard, a 23-year-old motorcyclist, is rushed into Emergency by helicopter, having collided with a parked car at speed. Flung through the air, he hit another car's bonnet and a lamppost before landing face down on the pavement. A scan reveals that Richard has suffered fractures to the sockets and balls of both hips and has damage to his testicles that will need further investigation. Next into the ward is 22-year-old bar worker Bobby, who while having had a few drinks with friends after work, managed to stand, barefoot, on a broken wine bottle, resulting in a deep cut and lots of blood.
