- 8:30 pm Australia's Secret Heroes - Operation Copper was an eight man mission to Mushu Island off New Guinea that went disastrously wrong. Only one man survived to tell the tale, Mick Dennis, who features in this episode, and survived 10 days in the jungle with the Japanese hunting him down. In Pittwater, the modern recruits recreate a similar mission to Operation Copper, leaving Cato alone and cut off from his group. Cato's Great Uncle, Alan Gubbay, was killed on the original mission. Tian and Brenden both travel to Borneo to retrace their grandfather's footsteps. The series finishes with final reflections from the veterans and the modern recruits themselves. The veterans reflect on war and its effect on them, and the recruits reflect on their experiences during the series, many of them feeling a much stronger attachment to their relatives. (Part 3 of 3) (Commissioned by SBS) (Documentary) (class tba) CC Final
- 9:30 pm Sandhurst Military Academy - Officer Class - The final episode sees tensions mount amongst the officer cadets. With the end in sight but the prospect of being 'back termed' ever present, the stakes go up each week. The academy's image as a bastion of old school tie and privilege comes under the spotlight as the unrelenting pace tests each individual's abilities - physical, mental and emotional - against the standards of becoming a British officer in the regiments and corps they have applied to join. For some, keeping up proves impossible - but for others the Sandhurst dream is about to become a reality. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Final) (Rpt) M(V,L) CC

- 8:30 pm A Great Welsh Adventure With Griff Rhys Jones - Conwy/Anglesey - In a lighthouse on the northernmost tip of mainland Wales Griff discovers his Conwy challenge; to find a Welsh Dresser. After spending the afternoon on a deck chair he hitches a lift into farming country. But the village antique shop hasn't seen a dresser in years. Griff turns his attention to wood and the plight of thirsty oak trees, and the abundance in Wales now of one of the tallest trees in the world - the Douglas Fir. Then Griff's heads to Ynys Gored Goch - a tiny island in the middle of the Menai Strait, where a message in a bottle informs Griff he has to find a puffin. After stumbling across an epicurean salt factory and then joining a local cycling team, Griff arrives at the last working windmill in Anglesey. - 9:30 pm 37 Days - One Long Weekend - Learning that Grey had advised Germany of French neutrality without the knowledge of France, George V informs Wilhelm that there has been a 'misunderstanding', a statement that fuels the German belief in British duplicity. Hatred of socialism also makes war seem attractive and, to Jens' horror, the parliament vote for war credits. In England at another contentious cabinet meeting, Grey and Asquith point out Britain's duty to upholding the Entente Cordiale supporting France in the likelihood of invasion, after which French ambassador Cambon requests a British military. - 8:30 pm Tour De France 2014 Live - Stage 1: Leeds to Harrogate - The 2014 Tour de France is shaping up as one of the most challenging and exciting in recent years. The race departs from Leeds, Yorkshire then goes to Belgium for a special departure from the cobblestone streets of Ypres in Stage 5 to commemorate the 100th anniversary of World War One. As the riders work their way south into France, the endurance test begins as they climb six mountain stages for five mountaintop finishes across a gruelling three ranges – the Vosges, the Alps, and the Pyrénées. The only time trial for the 2014 race, a team time trial, is positioned at the second last stage, setting this year's contenders up for a battle for victory all the way to the finish line in Paris.
