- 12:35 am Movie: *Hipsters - While the Cold War heats up on the world stage, rebellious youth in 1955 Moscow wage a cultural battle against dismal Soviet conformity, donning brightly coloured black-market clothing, adopting American nicknames and revelling in forbidden jazz. Straight-laced 20-year-old Mels finds these brazen 'hipsters' shocking until he falls under their spell. Winner of four Russian Golden Eagle Awards in 2009, including Best Film. Directed by Valeriy Todorovskiy and stars Anton Shagin, Oksana Akinshina and Eugenia Khirivskaya. (From Russia, in Russian) (Musical) (2008) (Rpt) MA(S)
- 3:00 am Inside Nature's Giants - *Hippo - A hippo cull by the authorities in Zambia's Luangwa Valley offers veterinary surgeon Mark Evans and anatomist Joy Reidenberg the opportunity to dissect one of these magnificent animals. They discover the protective functions of the creature's inch-thick skin and confirm its reputation as a gluttonous feeding machine. Biologist Simon Watt searches for hippo dung to find out why these grazers incessantly flick their muck using their short tails, while Richard Dawkins reveals the surprising fact that the hippos' closest living relatives are whales. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) PG CC
- 4:00 am Inside Nature's Giants - *Big Cats - The experts travel to South Africa to see lions in the wild. Veterinary surgeon Mark Evans and anatomist Joy Reidenberg dissect a lion and a tiger. From the outside, the lion and the tiger look very different, but once their skins are removed, even the experts find it hard to tell them apart. At a big cat rescue centre, biologist Simon Watt traces the history of the feline family, while Richard Dawkins explains the evolutionary arms race that has arisen between predators and their prey in the struggle to survive. - 5:30 pm Global Village - A Meal for the Gods - In the kitchen of a restaurant in the Brazilian town of Bahia, the cook prepares a good, hearty dish consisting of beans and meat - a traditional Feijoada. Her guests are ragged, uncombed and barefoot - streetchildren, who are invited here once a week. Cooking and eating mean much more in Bahia than just ingesting food. The preparation of food has a deep spiritual meaning and is part of Candomble, an African religion that was brought to Brazil by slaves. Here, it mixed with Catholic and Indian traditions. So Celina not only cooks for her restaurant guests and the street children, but also for ceremonies in her Candomble community. With Silvio Rivier. (Part 1 of 2) (Documentary) (Brazilian Culture) G CC
- 6:00 pm Destination Flavour - A food-inspired road trip around Australia with hosts Adam Liaw, Renee Lim and Lily Serna. This week, Lily samples a gourmet fig tart and snacks on raw potato in the southern highlands of NSW, while Renee experiences the buzz behind the Latin American food scene in Melbourne, and Adam pairs lobster with superb cool-climate wine in Tasmania. - 7:30 pm Walking Through History - Norfolk - Tony Robinson walks the stunning North Norfolk coast from the Royal estate of Sandringham in the west to the popular resort of Cromer 40 miles to the east. With the growth of the railways in the nineteenth century, Victorian entrepreneurs were keen to exploit the coast for the burgeoning tourist trade. But some of Norfolk's traditional landowners were not so keen. (Final) (From the UK) (Documentary) G CC Final
- 8:30 pm One Born Every Minute: What Happened Next? - This series revisits some of One Born Every Minute's most memorable Mums and Dads as they face the highs and the lows of parenthood to build a family and a future. We catch up with hard-working couple Tendayi and Maxwell, whose differing styles of parenting mean they don't always see eye-to-eye about bringing up their two boys. Their busy life is about to get even busier, as they welcome two more children into their family. (From the UK) (Documentary) M(A) CC New Episode
- 9:30 pm Death Of A Pilgrim - Based on an awarded trilogy about Olof Palme comes this drama series about the - still to this day - unsolved murder of the former Swedish prime minister. A young American journalist commits suicide by jumping out of a window from the 15th floor of a dorm building. The police soon close the investigation, but in the papers the journalist left behind, a manuscript is found describing the Swedish Prime Minister and his alleged past as a spy. Olof Palme, the document claims, worked for the CIA after World War II, but later sold out to the Soviet Union. Twenty years later, LM Johansson now heads the Swedish National Bureau of Investigation and decides to solve the Palme case once and for all. - 3:25 am The Real American: Joe McCarthy - This docudrama looks at the rise and fall of the man behind McCarthyism, a term now synonymous with political witch-hunts. Senator Joe McCarthy dominated 1950s US politics with his televised communist hunting and battles with key institutions like the Army and even the President himself. Mixing original footage with previously unseen archive imagery, and unique insights from leading observers, the program examines the political and cultural landscape that allowed McCarthy's meteoric rise to power. - 4:20 am Euro 2012: Stadiums Of Hate - On the eve of the Euro football tournament, Panorama reveals disturbing evidence of racism, violence and anti-Semitism at the very heart of the tournament. Visiting the host cities in Poland and Ukraine, Panorama has discovered organised far right groups who promised to "destroy" the 2012 tournament. This documentary captures them as they prepare in secretive training camps for the violence they want to cause. Poland and Ukraine claim to have cleaned up football but racist chants, yet it's evident that "white power" banners and anti-Semitic abuse are still commonplace.
