- 8:30 pm Living With The Enemy - Detention Centres - Each week, this confronting new series will see people live 24/7 with others whose lifestyles and beliefs directly contradict their own. Morteza is a 30-year old, former 'boat person' who landed on Xmas Island after fleeing Iran. He spent four uncertain years in detention during which he converted to Christianity, escaped from Woomera Detention Centre, sparked the riot that burned down the Port Hedland Detention Centre and famously sewed his lips together in the Villawood Detention Centre. He is exactly the sort of asylum seeker Jenni from Queensland says should not be allowed to stay in Australia. Living in each other's worlds is an explosive and emotionally draining experience for both of them. However, neither Jenni nor Morte, could have predicted the way the experiment would end. - 8:30 pm Heston's Great British Food - *Afternoon Tea - In tonight's final episode, Heston gives the classic British afternoon tea a few very special twists, conjuring something the Mad Hatter himself would be proud of. Heston does his own take on the Victoria sandwich cake. Inspired by a visit to Wedgwood fine china manufacturers, he makes an edible cake stand out of sponge and adds some 'sandwich' cakes that look like smoked salmon and cream cheese, but are in fact sweet cakes made from Earl Grey sponge and blood orange pâté de fruit. For tea, Heston brews a Darjeeling and hedgerow infusion and cucumber sandwich tea leaves. There's also a sandwich casino inside a beautiful country house in Staffordshire, where the guests are able to eat the playing cards, casino chips and even the gambling table. And there's one last surprise, with a chocolate teapot that pours Earl Grey chocolate tea. (From the UK) (Food Series) G CC New Episode

- 2:10 pm Richard Strauss And His Heroines - This year marks the 150th anniversary of the birth of Richard Strauss, one of the greatest of all German composers, whose work straddled the end of Romanticism and the beginning of the modernist era. Strauss wrote some of the most beguiling music for the female voice and created some of the most forceful female characters in operatic history. This biography tells the story of his relationships, particularly with his wife and muse, Pauline. The film also explores the life of a complex character who lived through the last days of Empire and two World Wars culminating in the destruction of Germany. Some of the greatest Strauss sopranos, Renée Fleming, Brigitte Fassbaender, Gwyneth Jones and Christa Ludwig provide their insights into performing these famous roles and music.
