2017-10-15	2220	Culture & Society	Shadow World	Premiere	Shadow World		0	Directed by Johan Grimontprez and based on the globally acclaimed book by Andrew Feinstein, Shadow World reveals how the international trade in weapons - with the complicity of governments and intelligence agencies, investigative and prosecutorial bodies, weapons manufacturers, dealers and agents - fosters corruption, determines economic and foreign policies, undermines democracy and creates widespread suffering. This riveting documentary posits an alternative through the experience of a peace activist and war correspondent, as well as the stories of Eduardo Galeano. Ultimately this documentary reveals the real costs of war, the way the arms trade drives it, how the weapons of war are now being turned against the citizens of liberal democracies, and how the 'shadow world' is taking over. 2017-10-15	2800	Archaeology	Lost City Of The Gladiators		Lost City Of The Gladiators		0	This is the first discovery of an entire gladiator school with an adjacent cemetery for dead fighters recently found in Austria. Located in the former Roman imperial residence of Carnuntum, only a small portion of the large area has been explored - an area that was located on the important trade routes that connected east and west, north and south. At the collapse of the Roman Empire, the city was abandoned and no settlements were established, allowing researchers to study the period as it was. The gladiator school may not be the only treasure to be found on the site of the lost city of Carnuntum - there may be many, many more.	GERMANY	English-100	2014	RPT	M	v		Y

2017-10-17	1630	History	Riding Britain's Railways	Tunnel Revolution	01	2	Host Dan Cruickshank follows the work of Isambard Kingdom Brunel, the brilliant engineer of great originality who designed the Great Western Railway and the first transatlantic steamer. The magnificent steam locomotives of the Great Western Railway were a combination of elegance and raw power. Brunel dreamed of a fast, luxury, long-distance line and built stations to suit his enterprise, transforming the experience of railway travel. And the Great Western Railway was just part of Brunel's steam-driven revolution. His passengers could travel all the way to America: from London to Bristol by train and then across the Atlantic by the largest steamship in the world. The construction of the Great Western Railway between Bristol and London was inspired by Brunel's vision to bring speed and comfort to the experience of travel.
