- 7:30 pm      Lost Kingdoms Of Central America - *The Place Where Time Began - Dr Jago Cooper explores the ancient civilisation of Teotihuacan that exploded into a position of dominance in the ancient Americas almost two thousand years ago. For hundreds of years this great city state was the biggest in the New World. Its rulers built monumental pyramids and temples and then went on to build a vast empire that was maintained through force. Yet the identity of the people who led this civilisation remains a mystery. (Part 4 of 4) (From the UK) (Documentary) (Archaeology) PG CC **Final****
- 8:30 pm      Last Days In Vietnam - A new documentary from Rory Kennedy examines the final days of American presence in Saigon and the heroic efforts to help evacuate 135,000 South Vietnamese. (From the US) (Documentary) (History) (class tba) CC **Premiere/SBS Remembers****
- 10:25 pm     The Unknown Known - This documentary film is a gripping exploration of the career and philosophy of former U.S Secretary of Defence Donald Rumsfeld. Using declassified memos, Oscar winning documentary filmmaker Errol Morris guides Rumsfeld through a discussion of his controversial career as a high-level executive under four different Republican presidents. Rumsfeld served as the 13th Secretary of Defence from 1975 to 1977 under President Gerald Ford, and as the 21st Secretary of Defence from 2001 to 2006 under President George W. Bush. He is both the youngest and the oldest person to have served as Secretary of Defence. Such absorbing topics as Vietnam, the Cold War, Desert Storm and the War on Terror are all examined through the words of one of America's most divisive and complex public figures. (From the US) (Documentary) (Politics) (2013) (class tba) CC **Premiere****

Sunday March 29th, 2015

- 12:20 am Movie: *Rescue Dawn - The true story of a US fighter pilot's gruelling experiences as a prisoner of war in Laos after being shot down during the Vietnam War, and his eventual escape. A dramatisation of director Werner Herzog's 1997 documentary Little Dieter Needs to Fly, this is an involving tale of courage and survival, with plenty of parallels to contemporary experiences of war and captivity. Directed by Werner Herzog and stars Zach Grenier, Marshall Bell, and Christian Bale. (From the US) (Action/Adventure) (2006) (Rpt) MAV (V) CC
- 2:30 am The *Burnt Cork - In 1950s rural Australia, Matthew and his wife live on a remote sheep station. Their quiet lives begin to unravel when it is discovered that Matthew has fathered a child to an Aboriginal woman who lives on the station. When a policeman arrives at the station, Matthew must choose between admitting he is the father and saving his child from being taken or remaining silent and saving his marriage. (Australia) (Short) M(A)
- 2:45 am First Australians - *They Have Come to Stay - This landmark series chronicles the birth of contemporary Australia as never told before, from the perspective of its first people. It explores what unfolds when the oldest living culture in the world is overrun by the world's greatest empire, and depicts the true stories of individuals - both black and white. The story begins in 1788 in Sydney with the friendship between an Englishman, Governor Phillip, and a warrior, Bennelong. (Commissioned by SBS) (Documentary Series) (Rpt) PG CC
- 4:00 am Jerusalem: The Making Of A Holy City - *Wellspring of Holiness - Author and historian Simon Sebag Montefiore presents a fascinating three-part series on Jerusalem: the shrine of three faiths - Judaism, Christianity and Islam, and the most fought over city in history. In the first episode, Simon delves into the past to explore how this unique city came into being, explaining how it became of such major importance to the three Abrahamic faiths, and how these faiths emerged from the Biblical tradition of the Israelites. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Part 1 of 3) (Rpt) PG CC

Tuesday March 31st, 2015

- 3:30 pm Make Me... - Stay Awake - Michael Mosley tests the extraordinary claim that we might only need a few hours of sleep - if that - each night. Having given up the medical profession because of his inability to function without sleep, Michael wants to see if there really is a way to stay awake. In his attempts to forego sleep for as long as possible, he gets help from the world record-breaker for staying awake, and meets a professor depriving human guinea pigs of sleep. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Final) (Rpt) PG CC
- 4:30 pm Wildest Latin America - The Pantanal - This series explores Latin America's most iconic and dramatic locations. This episode looks at the Pantanal - a vast, wild expanse in the centre of South America and the world's largest wetland. Every year it's drowned by immense floods, then parched by severe drought. The Pantanal hosts some of the greatest gatherings of animals on the planet, rivalling Africa's spectacular wildlife. (From the Netherlands, in English) (Documentary Series) (Part 4 of 5) (Rpt) PG CC
- 5:30 pm Letters And Numbers - Two contestants pit their linguistic and numerical skills against each other and the clock in this entertaining quiz show. - 6:00 pm Luke Nguyen's France - Luke's journey takes him to the Franche-Comté where he finds age-old recipes and experiences new levels of decadence. After going foraging with chef Pierre Basso Moro, Luke enjoys one of the Michelin star winning chef's most beloved dishes, which uses the famed Bresse chicken. Given the opportunity, how could he not visit Rachelle Roussel-Voisard, a Bresse chicken farmer, to learn why these chickens are so prized. Setting up his kitchen in the picturesque paddock, he uses one of the chickens for a dish inspired by Vietnam. A Napoleonic fort that has been converted into a giant cheese cave has the ingredients he then needs for his warming fondue dish. (Commissioned by SBS) (Food Series) (Rpt) G CC

- 8:30 pm The Missing Evidence: Big Foot - Stories of a giant walking creature have been told for centuries in the remote landscapes of Tibet and North America but it wasn't until, in 1951 the explorer Edmund Hillary took a photograph of huge footprints in the Himalayan snow that the legend took off. Very soon, eyewitness reports from the US and Canada suggested that an ancient species of hominid had survived in the remote American wilderness. Using the latest analytical techniques, psychology and evolutionary biology, we interrogate eyewitness accounts and the arguments for and against the existence of Bigfoot. In a revealing conclusion we reveal the prime suspect behind the continuing Bigfoot myths. (From the UK) (Documentary) G CC **New Episode****

- 1:45 am Movie: Teza - As students in Germany in the 1970s, Anberber and his friends are Ethiopian intellectuals in exile. Motivated by a profound sense of idealism, they return to Ethiopia after Haile Selassie is deposed. But they quickly find that they are out of place in their own country and at odds with the political mood of the day. When Anberber returns to Germany, he finds that he is not accepted there either. Directed by Haike Gerima, and stars Aran Arefe and Abiye Tedla. (From Germany and Ethiopia, in Amharic and German, English subtitles) (Drama) (2008) (Rpt) M (L,V,A)
- 4:05 am World War II: 1941 And The Man Of Steel - Historian David Reynolds re-assesses Stalin's role in the life and death struggle between Germany and Russia in World War Two, which, he argues, was ultimately more critical for British survival than the Battle of Britain itself. The name Stalin means 'man of steel', but Reynolds' account reveals how the reality of Stalin's war in 1941 did not live up to that name. Travelling to Russian battlefield locations, he charts how Russia was almost annihilated within a few months as Stalin lurched from crisis to crisis.
