- 5:30 pm The Flying Scotsman: A Rail Romance - This rollicking story is told through wonderful archive of the locomotive and the world of the men who built and drove it as well as through interviews with the key people who recall its history, the curator of the National Railway Museum Bob Gwynne, and two authors of books about the engine, Jonathan Glancey and Andrew Roden. (From the UK) (Documentary) G CC **Premiere****
- 6:30 pm SBS World News - Up-to-date reports and analysis of the major national and international news stories of the day in Australia's only world news service. (An SBS Production) CC
- 7:35 pm The Other Pompeii: Life And Death In Herculaneum - Just 10 miles from Pompeii, along the ancient shoreline, 12 arched vaults are telling a whole new story about life was like before the eruption of Mount Vesuvius. They contain the skeletons of no less than 340 people, that's 10% of the local population, killed by the volcano. Amongst them are the first new skeletons to be found in the area for 30 years: they're now the subject of a ground-breaking scientific investigation. (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 8:35 pm England's Early Queens - Jane, Mary and Elizabeth - In the medieval and Tudor world there was no question in peoples' minds about the order of God's creation - men ruled and women didn't. In this series, historian Helen Castor explores seven queens who challenged male power, the fierce reactions they provoked, and whether the term 'she wolves' was deserved. In the final episode, Castor looks at how the Tudor queens Jane, Mary and Elizabeth struggled with a crown made for a male head. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Final) (Rpt) PG CC
- 9:40 pm Sex, Death And The Meaning Of Life - The Meaning of Life - In the final episode, Richard Dawkins examines how both religious and non-religious people struggle to find meaning in their lives. He looks at how our existence is ruled by chance, meeting people whose fate was to be born into extreme poverty in India and survivors of a random tornado disaster in the USA. In the face of what appears to be a blindly indifferent universe, Dawkins argues that we each have to forge our own sense of meaning. (From the UK, in English and Hindi) (Documentary Series) (Final) (Rpt) M (A) CC

Sunday May 17th, 2015

- 10:35 pm Grand Tours Of Scotland - So Near, So Far - To begin this grand tour, Paul is travelling on an icon of the west coast; an original steam powered puffer, and is exploring a string of islands just off the west coast near Oban. Paul discovers that these little known islands played a vital role in the Battle of the Atlantic in World War II and were, for centuries, the centre of slate production for the world. Paul's final destination in this Grand Tour is Eileach an Naoimh, one of the Garvallach Islands, and home to some of the oldest religious buildings in Scotland.
