- 2:10 am Movie: The Blacks - With the Bosnian war over, a team of Croatian special forces soldiers continue their physical and emotional battle when they determine to retrieve the bodies of their comrades from a minefield, blowing up a dam in the process. Croatia's submission for the Best Foreign Language Film at the 2010 Academy Awards. Directed by Goran Devic and Zvonimir Juric, and stars Ivo Gregurevic, Krešimir Mikic and Franjo Dijak. (From Croatia, in Croatian) (Drama) (2009) (Rpt) M (A,V,L)
- 3:30 am The Battle For Rio - Rio de Janeiro, famous for its lifestyle and beauty as much for its violence, has initiated a unique experiment: A "pacification process" in the favelas was launched in 2008 with the goal of improving city security in preparation for the 2014 World Cup and 2016 Olympic Games. For more than 40 years, Rio de Janeiro was a divided city - the poor lived in favelas on the hillsides and the rich near the beaches. The city authorities considered the favelas the source of Rio's urban problems, citing them for crime, violence, and the creation of a culture of poverty. This documentary looks at the effectiveness of the program, how resident's feel about it, and the additional problems it has created. (From France, in Portuguese & French) (Documentary) (Rpt) M(A,D,L) CC

- 7:30 pm Michael Mosley: Pain, Pus And Poison - *Poison - Dr Michael Mosley tells the extraordinary story of how scientists learnt to use the world around us to heal our bodies and conquer the common afflictions of pain, pus and poison. Poisons in the natural world kill thousands of people every year. They attack our bodies, leading to a 'short-circuit'. Yet some poisons are now being used to improve the way we look! Today the hunt is on for other poisons that can actually help to cure us. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Final) (Rpt) PG (A) CC **Michael Mosley Season****

Monday June 29th, 2015

- 8:30 pm Operation Maneater – Great White Shark - Mark travels to Western Australia, where seven people have been killed by sharks in the last three years. Authorities have implemented radical measures to catch and kill any shark they deem a threat. Evans wants to find non-lethal solutions to keep people - and sharks - safe. He enters the water to attach tracking tags to great whites; joins beach patrol teams searching for sharks; and tests a new “multi-spectral” camera that spots sharks from the air even when they are hidden several meters underwater. (From the UK) (Documentary) PG CC **Final****
- 9:30 pm Death Row - Darlie Routier - Former cheerleader Darlie Routier had always been proud of her good looks, which helped her marry a wealthy man and live in luxury. But after giving birth to three sons, she felt that motherhood was ruining her looks and her life, and she blamed her children. In 1996, she stabbed her sons, Devon, 6, and Damon, 5, with a carving knife. Then she wounded herself to convince police that an intruder had killed her sons. But in her account of the attack she contradicted herself. Despite her proclamations of innocence, the 26 year old mother was tried and convicted in 1997 for killing her sons. Awaiting execution by lethal injection and with further investigations still proceeding, Darlie talks to Werner about her perspective on life and death, and looks back on the events which led her to be facing the death penalty. (Part 4 of 4)(From Germany, in English) (Documentary) M(A) CC **Final****

- 11:00 pm The Battle In Your Mind - As a species, we like to think we are smart, creatures of reason, capable of making rational decisions. But we may have to think again. With every decision you take, there is a battle in your mind - a battle between intuition and logic. And the intuitive part of your mind is a lot more powerful than you may think. This conflict affects every aspect of your life - your diet, your habits, your beliefs. Professor Danny Kahneman explains the revolution in our understanding of the human mind. (From the UK) (Documentary) G CC **Premiere****
- 12:00 am Movie: Me Too - This touching Spanish drama delves into the life of Daniel, a young man with Down Syndrome. Highly intelligent and largely independent, Daniel doesn't fit the usual stereotype. Outside of his loving family, however, he struggles to find the intimacy he craves. When he develops romantic feelings for a co-worker that are not reciprocated, his frustration builds as the world refuses to see past his condition. Nominated for the Grand Jury Prize at the 2010 Sundance Film Festival. Directed by Antonio Naharro and Álvaro Pastor, and stars Pablo Pineda, Lola Dueñas and Isabel García Lorca. (From Spain, in Spanish) (Drama) (2009) (Rpt) M (L,N,S)
- 1:50 am Movie: Mother - When a mentally disabled boy is arrested for the murder of a young girl in rural South Korea, the case is quickly closed thanks to an inefficient lawyer and an apathetic police force. It's left to the boy's widowed mother to find the girl's killer and to prove her son's innocence. Winner of three Asian Film Awards in 2010, including Best Film. Directed by Joon-ho Bong and stars Hye-ja Kim, Bin Won and Ku Jin. (From South Korea, in Korean) (Mystery/Crime) (2009) (Rpt) MAV (S,V)

- 7:30 pm The Spear Of Destiny - Housed in a museum in Vienna, the Spear of Destiny has a long and storied history. First mentioned in the New Testament's Gospel of John, a blind Roman soldier named Longinus uses the lance to pierce the side of Jesus at the crucifixion. When Jesus' blood flows out and touches Longinus' eyes, his sight is restored. The lance is connected to a miracle and over the centuries the legends surrounding the power of the lance continue to grow. Our team of investigators hunts for clues to find the truth of the spear's power. They start by examining the physical layers of the lance. Finally, we explore a 20th century legend that Hitler fell under the spell of the Spear of Destiny and that it played a role in his mad quest for power, and ultimately in his defeat.
