- 9:35 pm SLICE Doco: Dreams Of A Life - In January 2006, Joyce Carol Vincent's decomposed body was found in a London flat. The death had been undiscovered for three years. The 38-year-old's body was so decayed that the post-mortem was unable to find a cause of death, nor the circumstances around why she had not been found for so long. The terrible incident briefly made national news, but without any more details to go on, seemed to quickly turn into a tragic closed chapter. But for filmmaker Carol Morley it inspired an incredible, dogged investigation that lasted for five years and has resulted in a tender, thoughtful and celebratory homage to Vincent's life pieced together from interviews with her friends and dramatised scenes.
