- 9:30 pm Pervert Park - For sex offenders in the United States, only a small number of facilities, such as the beaten-down trailer park at the centre of this unflinching documentary, offer people the chance to confront their crimes and re-integrate - as much as the law will allow - into society. Within this outcast community, a handful of offenders tell searing personal stories that paint a troubling portrait of abuse and justice in America. The film seeks neither to forgive nor defend its subjects, some of whom have committed acts so atrocious they cannot even forgive themselves, but it does question the severity of laws designed to stifle rather than rehabilitate those yearning for a second chance.
