- 7:30 pm Treasures Of Ancient Rome - Warts 'n' All - In this three-part series, Alastair Sooke takes an in-depth look at the art of the Roman Empire. Alastair traces how the Romans during the Republic went from being art thieves and copycats to pioneering a new artistic style - warts 'n' all realism. Roman portraits reveal what the great names from history, men like Julius Caesar and Cicero, actually looked like. Sooke also explores the remarkable artistic legacy of Pompeii before showing how the emperor Augustus used the power of art to help forge an empire. (From the UK) (Documentary Series) (Part 1 of 3) PG CC
- 8:30 pm Berlin Wall: Closing The Iron Curtain - On the 25th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall, SBS ONE will premiere this documentary special about the events in the lead up to this historical moment. While many saw the fall of the Berlin Wall, few were present at its birth in August 1961. But one westerner was: Reuters' journalist Adam Kettel-Long, having received a tip off that evening, discovers thousands of men working to seal off West Berlin by dawn. The film follows the events of the night the communists played one of the biggest bluffs of the 20th Century. (From the UK, in English & German) (Documentary) PG CC 25th Anniversary Premiere Special

Sunday November 9th, 2014

- 9:30 pm Cold Case JFK - On November 22, 1963 the most powerful man in the world was gunned down in broad daylight in front of hundreds of witnesses, police, and photographers. It was the crime of the century—and it was never solved. This documentary re-opens the case to discover if today's technology can shed light on what actually happened by looking at the evidence as seen through the lens of present day through state-of-the-art forensic science. (From the US) (Documentary) (Rpt) M(A,V) CC
- 10:30 pm The Gatekeepers - In this 2012 documentary, six former heads of Israel's internal secret service agency exclusively reflect on their successes and failures to maintain security, providing a timely perspective on the recent in the Gaza Strip. These six men individually and as a group have come to reconsider their hard-line positions and advocate a conciliatory approach toward their enemies based on a two-state solution. Ever since the Six Day War, however, the internal security force known as the Shin Bet has come to dominate the discussion among Israel's policy makers. This documentary tells the story of the Shin Bet, perhaps the most active and certainly the most secretive of Israel's security forces, and through a series of candid interviews, it tells it from the perspectives of its leaders who, more than anyone, received the trust of the country's political elites. (From the US, in Hebrew) (Documentary) (2012) (Rpt) M(A,V) CC
- 12:20 am Movie: I Always Wanted To Be A Gangster - Told in four vignettes, this existential comedy relates the exploits of four aspiring criminals who hope to improve their lot, but find that they might not have what it takes for a life of crime.
