- 1:00 pm How To Mend A Broken Heart - Finding a way to replicate the human heart is the holy grail of modern medicine, and Dr Kevin Fong wants to find out how close we are to achieving it. In his quest, Kevin looks at the effectiveness of some current treatments, including: a heart transplant; a total artificial heart; the use of a patient's own stem cells to regenerate their ailing heart; and even a 'virtual heart'. As mechanical and biological treatments for failing hearts progress, we move ever closer to answering the question - can we mend a broken heart? (From the UK) (Documentary) (Rpt) PG CC
- 2:00 pm The Code - Shapes - Starting at the hexagonal columns of Northern Ireland's Giant's Causeway, Marcus du Sautoy discovers the code underpinning the extraordinary order found in nature - from rock formations to honeycomb and from salt crystals to soap bubbles. Marcus also reveals the mysterious code that governs the apparent randomness of mountains, clouds and trees, and explores how this not only could be the key to Jackson Pollock's success, but has also helped breathe life into hugely successful movie animations. - 3:00 pm Ultimate Parkour Challenge - Witness the world's fastest-growing extreme sport to our TVs with the Ultimate Parkour Challenge. The essence of parkour is as simple as a game of chase: athletes move as efficiently as possible from point A to point B. However, unlike a regular track and field race, parkour is performed in any and every environment. Athletes must roll, climb, leap, flip and fly over walls, cars, stairs, railings, and ten-foot rooftop gaps between five-storey buildings. The world's best parkour athletes will challenge themselves in different southern Californian urban environments. (From the US) (Entertainment) (Rpt) PG
