- 8:30 pm Searching For Sugarman - In the late '60s, a musician was discovered in a Detroit bar by two celebrated producers who were struck by his soulful melodies and prophetic lyrics. They recorded an album that they believed was going to secure his reputation as one of the greatest recording artists of his generation. In fact, the album bombed and the singer disappeared into obscurity amid rumours of a gruesome on-stage suicide. But a bootleg recording found its way into apartheid South Africa and, over the next two decades, it became a phenomenon. Two South African fans then set out to find out what really happened to their hero. Their investigation led them to a story more extraordinary than any of the existing myths about the artist known as Rodriguez. This is a film about hope, inspiration and the resonating power of music. (From the US) (Documentary) M(L) CC Premiere

- 7:30 pm Wild France - Through a series of compelling and moving stories in the wild, this two-part documentary series reveals France as a country blessed with natural riches. France is a country where the rich, fertile and well watered soil has given birth to an exceptional level of biodiversity. This program explores its full range up close and personal. In the Pyrenees we meet the brown bear, whose spring diet requires an abundance of protein rich foods. In Ecrins Nation Park in the Alps, the golden eagle hunts marmots, who have developed a sophisticated collective surveillance system to keep them safe. And up in the mountains, wild wolves are also out in force, and two wolf pups are getting used to the world outside their den for the very first time. - 8:30 pm 24 Hours In Emergency - Worst Case Scenario - This series which is filmed round the clock at King's College Hospital in south London, comes to a close with an episode focusing on men of all ages facing illness and their fears. 79-year-old Arthur has been brought to Resus after complaining of stomach pains. The medics are trying to work out which one of his underlying conditions could be to blame - he's on kidney dialysis, has an existing ulcer and an enlarged aorta (the major artery in the heart). But Arthur's not one for complaining, he's known tough times. Meanwhile, 20-year-old Tom, who works as a wine merchant, is rushed into A&E after collapsing with acute chest pain and difficulty breathing. - 9:30 pm Borgen - Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery - There is unrest amongst the New Democrats when the sex trade is placed on the agenda. In Copenhagen, police have found three women who have been locked up and forced to have sex against their will. The case causes the political parties to discuss the need for a law prohibiting the purchase of sex in Denmark. During the negotiations on the bill, however, Birgitte requests time for reflection when she becomes in doubt about what prostitutes themselves actually want or need. Torben's problems escalate when his boss, Alex, finds out about his affair. Birgitte wonders whether to introduce Jeremy to her children. - 2:50 pm Kraftwerk: Pop Art - Kraftwerk have always managed to shift effortlessly between the worlds of Popular Music and Art. Using state of the art electronics, video imagery and graphic art, and eschewing the cults of personality and stardom, they have remained enigmatic and extraordinarily influential on a generation of musicians and artists. This documentary represents the first film ever made and approved by the band and includes excerpts from their recent sell-out performances at the Tate Modern in London. With contributions from critics and fellow musicians, as well as previously unseen archives, it represents a portrait of a band whose refusal to follow the well-trodden paths of pop stardom made them a genuine force for cultural change, innovation and intrigue.
