HOUSE SEASON 2

Sundays at 9.30am and 9.30pm

The maverick medicine man continues to work his magic in Season 2. Dr. Gregory House (Hugh Laurie) is head of an elite team of medical specialists that handles cases most ordinary doctors couldn't even begin to diagnose. He's caustic, outspoken and addicted to painkillers. But as much as he is disliked, he is treasured for his diagnostic skills. In Season 2, House continues to handle the toughest cases and will do whatever it takes to save lives: break rules, break tradition and even break a few laws.

BASIC INSTINCT GROOVY MOVIE

Sunday, November 2 at 3.30pm and 10.30pm

San Francisco police detective Nick Curran is investigating the murder of a former rock star. As Nick digs into the case, he encounters three intriguing women, each with an unexpected motive for the crime. Catherine Tramell is a fast-living novelist whose fictional murders have a strange way of coming true. Roxy is Catherine's street-wise girlfriend. Dr. Beth Garner is a police psychologist counseling Nick. Seduced by Catherine, Nick is drawn into a maze of mind games, love, excess and murder where the only thing he can rely on, ultimately, is his basic instinct.

BASIC INSTINCT (1992) stars Michael Douglas, Sharon Stone and Jeanne Tripplehorn.

MY BEST FRIEND'S WEDDING & NOTTING HILL

GROOVY MOVIE DOUBLE

Saturday, November 15 from 10am

MY BEST FRIEND'S WEDDING

A funny, romantic story of how far we have come - and how low we will go - in the name of love. Nine years ago, freewheeling Julianne Potter (Julia Roberts) made a pact with her best friend and ex-boyfriend, Michael O'Neal, to marry each other if neither had found someone to love by the age of 28. The time has come and Michael has popped the question... but to someone else! Only realising what she wants when she sees it walking out of her life, Julianne sets out for Chicago along with her co-conspirator, George, to do whatever is necessary to stop the wedding.

MY BEST FRIEND'S WEDDING (1997) stars Julia Roberts, Dermot Mulroney, Cameron Diaz and Rupert Everett.

NOTTING HILL

Fate introduces an unlikely pair when unassuming English bookstore owner, William (Hugh Grant) accidentally spills orange juice on one of his customers - who turns out to be America's favourite superstar, Anna Scott (Julia Roberts). Romance blossoms as the couple deal with the trials and difficulties of their inherently tricky relationship, learning that love can conquer all. Hilarious, entertaining and romantic.

NOTTING HILL (1999) stars Julia Roberts, Hugh Grant and Rhys Ifans.

DANTE'S PEAK

GROOVY MOVIE

Sunday, November 16 at 3.30pm, 10.30pm and Monday, November 17 at 2pm

Dr. Harry Dalton discovers that Dante's Peak, which has recently been named the second most desirable place to live in America, is being threatened by a volcano that hasn't been live for years. Without warning, day becomes night, air turns to fire and solid ground melts beneath white-hot lava. Who will survive the inferno?

DANTE'S PEAK (1997) stars Pierce Brosnan and Linda Hamilton.

FORREST GUMP

GROOVY MOVIE PREMIERE

Sunday, November 30 at 3.30pm, 10.30pm and Monday, December 1 at 2pm

Tom Hanks gives an astonishing performance as Forrest Gump. Through three turbulent decades, Forrest rides a tide of events that whisks him from physical disability to football stardom, from Vietnam hero to shrimp tycoon, from White House honours to the arms of his one true love. Forrest is the embodiment of an era; an innocent at large in an America that is losing its innocence. His heart knows what his limited IQ cannot. His moral compass never wavers. His triumphs become an inspiration to us all.

FORREST GUMP (1994) stars Tom Hanks, Robin Wright Penn and Sally Field.
