WEEK 1

EUREKA

PREMIERES ON SCI FI

Every Thursday from December 4 at 8.30pm.

Encore screenings every Sunday at 5.50pm.

At the end of WWII, US President Truman commissioned a top-secret remote residential development that would serve to protect and nurture America's most valuable intellectual resources. There, the greatest thinkers and geniuses working on the next era of scientific achievement, would be able to live and work in a supportive environment. Thus, the town of Eureka was born. From unrequited love to professional jealousy, from addiction to depression, the problems of Eureka's townsfolk stem from life's myriad of everyday challenges. But with the population's unique talents these small-town concerns have a way of becoming big-time problems.

HEROES, SEASON 2

PREMIERES ON SCI FI

Every Thursday from December 4 at 7.30pm.

Encore screenings every Sunday at 5pm.

When this hit show returns, the extraordinary HEROES strive to be ordinary four months after the explosive events in New York. Deadly new threats loom and brand-new individuals with abilities emerge worldwide.

The fates of Peter (Milo Ventimiglia), Nathan (Adrian Pasdar) and Matt (Greg Grunberg) are revealed, following the horrible showdown with Sylar (Zachary Quinto) and Peter's uncontrolled nuclear detonation miles above New York City.

As everyone attempts to move on, a new sinister force begins stalking and murdering Heroes. The family hide-out in Southern California, H.R.G. (Jack Coleman) and Claire (Hayden Panettiere) attempt to live as inconspicuously as possible...which proves to be easier said than done. Meanwhile, after landing in feudal Japan, Hiro (Masi Oka) meets his hero Takezo Kensei (David Anders). Twins Maya (Dania Ramirez) and Alejandro Herrera (Shalim Ortiz) hope to make the crossing into the U.S. from Mexico, in hopes of finding help with their deadly abilities.
